A SHERIFF'S PLEA

SAYS HE COULD NOT PREVENT LEAVENWORTH LYNCHING.

DID ALL HE COULD FOR NEGRO

WHO WAS BURNED AT STAKE IN BIG CITY.

THE WORK OF A MAD MOB

GHASTLY SCENE IS WITNESSED BY THOUSANDS.

Leavenworth, Kas., Jan. 16.—Officials responsible for the life of Fred Alexander, the negro burned at the stake in this city last evening, today began the preparation of their defense. The negro's guilt of the assault and murder last November of Pearl Forbes, which he denied with his last breath, was, they say, proved conclusively by his statements while in Lansing penitentiary. This evidence will be gathered and published in addition. Sheriff Everhardy said today that the report that Alexander assaulted a girl at Stillings, near here, is true, and that the young woman had appeared at the penitentiary yesterday before the start for Leavenworth and positively identified the negro as her assailant.

Sheriff Everhardy said today:

"Those who condemn me should place themselves in my position. I did my duty so far as lay within my power, but I was overwhelmed by superior numbers. I told the warden I would land Alexander in the county jail, and I did. When I realized that the crowd was bent on getting my prisoner I stood up in the carriage and called to the driver to drive through to the county jail in spite of the crowd and over run any one who should get in the way. I locked the man up and did not give up the keyes, although several demands were made upon me. I deplore the fact that Alexander was burned. I did my full duty as sheriff of Leavenworth county.

"I did not request state militia and am glad the troops did not arrive. If they had there would have been several innocent lives lost."

DETAILS OF THE HORROR.

Leavenworth, Kas., Jan. 16.—Fred Alexander, the negro who attempted to assault Miss Eva Roth Saturday evening and who was accused of having assaulted and murdered Miss Pearl Forbes on the night of November 6, was late yesterday afternoon burned at the stake. The fire was kindled by John Forbes, father of the girl whose dead body was found two months ago. Several thousand people witnessed the burning, many of them being women and children, as well as business men, whose offices and stores were closed to witness what they believed to be a just retribution for the crime.

Alexander was brought to the city from the penitentiary at Lansing at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon and placed in the county jail. The citizens gathered in great numbers, and, finding peaceable entrance to the jail impossible, armed themselves with railroad irons. The jail doors were battered down and Alexander dragged to the scene of his crime, followed by hundreds of howling, frenzied men and boys.

PROTESTS HE IS INNOCENT.

Alexander went to the stake exhibiting strong self-possession and a rare command over his nerves. Before the match was applied John Forbes, the father of the murdered girl, stepped up to Alexander and asked: "Are you guilty of murdering my daughter?"

"I don't know what you have me here for," said the doomed man.

Forbes replied: "For killing my girl on this very spot."

"Mr. Forbes, if that's your name, you have the wrong man."

"Burn him! Burn him!" cried the mob.

"Gentlemen, you've got lots of time," said Alexander. "You are burning an innocent man. You took advantage of me. You gave me no show. Can I see my mother?" A man in the crowd called for the mother of the prisoner, but she was not present. He then asked: "Will you let me shake hands with all of my friends?"

"You have no friends in this crowd, you beast!" shouted one of the men in charge of the negro. "If you have anything to say, do so in a hurry." He was told to say his prayers, and for a few moments the vast crowd was hushed as if in a sanctuary.

IS LANDED IN JAIL.

The negro was taken from his cell at the state penitentiary at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, placed in a hack and brought to town. Fifty deputy marshals surrounded him, and Deputy Sheriffs Stancemyers and Tom Brown sat in the hack on either side of him.

There were fifty buggies and wagons in the procession which followed the hack. The trip to town was made quietly, and there was no attempt to create a disturbance on the road.

When the corner of Fourth and Olive streets was reached, the police who were in the hack following the one in which Alexander was concealed jumped out and chased several negroes. This created a diversion which attracted the attention of every one, and in the excitement the hack in which Alexander was concealed was frantically driven to the county jail. Just as the mob reached the doors he was locked in the first cell on the east side of the cellhouse. All the doors of the jail were locked.

JAIL DOORS BROKEN DOWN.

The crowd pushed its way to the side door, and, using one man as a

CHRISTIAN ORFF EXPIRES AT NEWPORT, ARK

Was Once a Leading Dry Goods Merchant in This City—Long in the West.

Christian Orff, in former years a leading dry goods merchant in Fort Wayne, died at 6 o'clock this morning at Newport, Ark., at the age of nearly 70 years. The news came in a telegram to Fort Wayne friends this morning.

Mr. Orff was a brother of the late John Orff, county commissioner-elect, and left Fort Wayne nearly twenty years ago. He was for a time engaged in the wholesale and retail dry goods business at No. 3 East Columbia street, the firm name being Orff & Noll Bros. After his removal to the west he engaged in the lumber business in Arkansas, later lived at Omaha, and still later at St. Louis, where he was cashier for the Simplex one Magazine company. His wife was a Miss Heller, daughter of a prominent family at Heller's Corners. There were three children—Frank, Addie and Mattie.

Mr. Orff was born in Germany and was the last of four brothers—John, Henry, Gottlieb and Christian—who were prominent Fort Wayne citizens for many years. Mr. Orff's funeral is to be held at St. Louis Friday.

KUHNS INTERESTS DURBIN

NEW GOVERNOR CONSIDERS THE CASE.

Believes the Noble County Convict Ought Not to Be Allowed to Hold Officers in Defiance.

Indianapolis, Jan. 16.—Governor Durbin had hardly settled into his executive chair before he was asked if he would make any attempt to return Marvin Kuhns to the Ohio prison.

"That is a question which I shall take into strong consideration," replied the chief executive. "If there is roaming about this state a man who is a desperado and such an outlaw as has been reported, it is a serious reflection on the state, and I shall see what can be done in the matter."

"You mean that you will notify the peace officers that Kuhns must be arrested?"

"I mean what I said," replied the governor, tartly. "I shall see what can be done in the matter. The idea of a single man defying the whole state is not a pleasant reflection on the peace officers. What plans I shall pursue I will decide on when I have ascertained how to proceed."

The governor added to this that he had taken no action, nor would he admit that any was contemplated. From other sources, however, comes a hint that within ten days Kuhns will either jump the state or he will have a chance to return to Ohio free of charge.

AN EXCITING RUNAWAY.

A horse belonging to Theodore Sutorius, a farmer residing a short distance west of the city, ran away on High street this afternoon and before the excited animal was stopped it had succeeded in completely wrecking the light buggy to which it was hitched. No one was injured in the runaway.

ALLEN COUNTY IT

ABSORBS ATTENTION OF THE STATE SENATE.

KELL CASE AGAIN COMES UP

IS SENT TO COMMITTEE ON ELECTIONS.

THE FLEMING-RYAN CONTEST

IS NOW BEING HEARD BY THE COMMITTEE.

[Special to The Sentinel.]

Indianapolis, Jan. 16.—In the senate this forenoon the special was a discussion whether Senator Kell of Allen county is affected by the Fleming-Ryan contest and should be sworn in as a new senator or regarded as a holdover. Senator Inman moved that Senator Wood's motion of a few days ago be referred to the committee on elections. Senator Inman spoke in favor of the motion and was supported by Senators Winfield and Ryan. Senator Ryan said:

"As one directly interested in this matter, I think the motion to commit the motion of Senator Wood to the elections committee fair, just and right and should prevail."

Senator Inman's motion thereupon was carried.

RYAN-FLEMING CONTEST.

This afternoon the senate elections committee took up the Ryan-Fleming contest from Fort Wayne. A report will be prepared as soon as possible. Senator Ryan is represented by Former Senator L. P. Newby, of Knightstown, and Former Supreme Justice Hackney appears for Mr. Fleming. There is no evidence to be heard, as the question involved is merely a constitutional point, which will be argued by the attorneys.

There are protests against changes in medical legislation filed in the senate. The house today passed Representative Bayhare's bill providing for certain extra employes in the house. Representative Stutesman, late candidate for speaker, protested against passage of the bill.

REAL WORK BEGINS.

Although the sessions of both houses of the Indiana legislature were not prolonged yesterday, the members were kept pretty busy while they did work. Senate and house held morning and afternoon sessions. In the senate fifty-eight bills were introduced and in the house the number reached the neighborhood of seventy.

Among the more important measures brought up in the senate was the anti-lynching bill, a bill providing for capital punishment by hanging or electrocution, and an anti-cigarette bill or two. In the house all sorts of bills were introduced. A kidnaping bill, providing the death penalty or life imprisonment for this crime where it is done for ransom or hire, was introduced. The primary election bill was introduced by Representative Minturn, and the fee and salary bills were features of the day's work in the house. Two measures were passed in the house. One was a bill relating to bonds issued by county commissioners and the other was an act legalizing the official doings of a small Indiana town.

CHARTER BILLS.

Among the bills introduced in the senate yesterday was No. 47 by Senator Ryan, of Allen county, making city charters formerly applicable to cities of from 35,000 tot 49,000 population now apply to cities of between 45,000 and 49,000 population.

Bill No. 27, introduced by Senator Kell, of Allen county, authorizes school boards in cities of between 45,000 and 55,000 population to sell bonds to build schools.

In both branches of the legislature affairs moved smoothly yesterday. Speaker Artman announced his committees during the morning and some of them began work in the afternoon. Both houses held short afternoon sessions, but for the next week or more the house will probably have only half-day sessions. The first really spirited debate held in the house took place yesterday morning on account of a resolution introduced by Representative Neal to purchase fifty-two volumes of Horner's anotated statutes. The resolution was lost, as was one by Mr. Stutesman, who desired to buy Burns' statutes. Mr. Stutesman opposed Mr. Neal and thought it would be economy to purchase the other.

RULES' COMMITTEE MEETS.

The committee on rules, regulations and ordinances met last night at the city clerk's office to discuss the new ordinance introduced at the last meeting, providing for the appointment of a city electrical inspector. The legislative committee of the Trades and Labor council, a number of employes from the Electric light works and a committee from the electrical workers' union were present. Nothing definite was done and the meeting adjourned to reconvene some time next week.

DISCOVERED A BLAZE.

At 5:30 this morning Officer Collins saw smoke issuing from the rear of Miller Bros.' junk shop on Superior street. A little investigation proved the presence of fire as well as smoke and an alarm was turned in. The chemical engine succeeded in extinguishing the fire without the assistance of the water engines. It was fortunate that the fire was discovered in its early stages otherwise a serious conflagration might have resulted. The origin of the fire is not known. The loss was nominal.

THE TELLER IS IN GAOL 4Da

SHORT MANY THOUSANDS IN HIS ACCOUNTS.

Teller Mason, of New York Bank, is Unable to Make His Books Balance—Long in Bank.

New York, Jan. 16.—J. Prevost Mason, third teller of the Continental National bank of this city, is in jail, charged with embezzlement. Mason was arrested late last night.

The specific charge is the stealing of $3,000 by means of false entries.

The peculations foot up $12,000 in all, according to the Fidelity and Casualty company, which was on Mason's bond for $10,000. Mason is forty-eight years old and lived with his wife and daughter, twenty-two years old, at 1551 Washington avenue, where he was arrested. He has practically been in charge since Sunday.

He has been with the bank twenty-seven years and received a salary of $1,800 a year.

Bank Examiner Charles A. Hanna went to the Continental bank Saturday to look over the books. Mason complained of not feeling well and said he guessed he would go home.

He did and a clerk was put in his place. It was not long before the clerk discovered something which led him to notify the bank examiner, and the shortage was discovered.

RED MIKE NOT WANTED.

London, Jan. 16.—Inquiries made in the proper quarters here show that the United States authorities have not asked for the extradition of either Michael Judson, alias "Red Mike," or James French, alias "French Jim," who are said to be implicated in the murder by means of "knock-out drops" at Philadelphia of Rev. Charles P. Riegel, a Roman Catholic priest, and one of whom at least, according to advices from Philadelphia, had shipped on a vessel thought to be the American line steamer Ikba, which sailed from Philadelphia January 4 for Liverpool. Nothing is officially known here of the case.

GAVE THEM A SURPRISE.

Councilman and Mrs. James J. Hayes, who have recently taken charge of the New Harmon hotel, were the recipients of an agreeable surprise perpetrated by friends last evening. About forty friends, including many of Mr. Hayes' old friends of the railroad service, gathered in the hotel parlors and spent the evening most pleasantly with cards and music. Refreshments were served at the close. The gathering was a pretty observance of the tenth anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Hayes' marriage.

NO SMALLPOX THERE.

Quarantine has been lifted from the only house in New Haven wherein there was a case of smallpox and the citizens of that little city are now free to go and come at will. The residents of New Haven are also congratulating themselves upon the fact that the dreaded disease has abated elsewhere in that part of the county and it is believed there is not a case of the malady within five miles of New Haven. The business interests of the town suffered greatly through the publicity given the one case of smallpox within the corporation limits. People outside did not go there to trade.

Willard Gahris, who has been the guest of Miss Eckert, of Berry street, has returned to Buffalo.

PRESSING A VOTE

ARMY REORGANIZATION BILL IS HURRIED.

WILL VOTE ON IT TOMORROW

ALLEN WILL WITHDRAW HIS OBJECTION.

THE PENSION BILL REPORTED

THE DAY'S PROCEEDINGS IN THE HOUSE.

Washington, Jan. 16.—In the senate today Mr. Carter asked that a final vote upon the army reorganization bill and all amendments then pending be taken at 4 o'clock tomorrow.

Mr. Allen said that for the time being he would object, although subsequently he might withdraw his objection. This objection, it is said, is only temporary, as an understanding has been reached that such an agreement will be made. Opposition senators say the vote will be taken at that time.

At the openin of today's session Mr. Gallinder reported the pension appropriation bill and it went to the calendar.

IN THE HOUSE.

Washington, Jan. 16.—Before proceeding with the river and harbor bill today Mr. Hull, of Iowa, chairman of the committee on military affairs, reported back the DeArmond resolution calling upon the war department for all information relative to the alleged action of General Chaffee in protesting against the looting in China, with the recommendation that it lie on the table. Accompanying the report Mr. Hull submitted the letter of the secretary of war, already published, explaining the difficulty in obtaining the required information and pointing out that it could not be procured until after the expiration of the present congress.

Mr. DeArmond, of Missouri, the author of the resolution, said that he had been moved to introduce it by a paragraph in the newspapers, which was very creditable to General Chaffee, in which it was recited that he had rebuked or protested against the conduct of an officer of a foreign government in regard to the looting in China.

The paragraph indicated that neither the American commander nor the American soldiers were responsible for the barbarity and dishonesty which had taken place in that unhappy country.

He had desired only to procure official confirmation of the reports, but the reasons given by the secretary of war for not pressing the resolution were entirely satisfactory to him.

The resolution was then laid upon the table and the house went into committee of the whole and resumed the consideration of the river and harbor bill.

WEST POINT INQUIRY.

West Point, N. Y., Jan. 16.—When the congressional committee met at the military academy today and before any witnesses were called, Congressman Wanger, of Pennsylvania, addressed the other committeemen. He referred to the published reports of the hissing incident at the close of the afternoon session yesterday. Mr. Wanger said that in at least two newspapers army officers were charged with taking part in the hissing. He desired, however, to express his firm belief that no expression of disapprobation was made by any army officer present at the time. He was pleased to hear that Colonel Hein, acting superintendent of the academy, had instituted a thorough inquiry regarding the matter. Mr. Wanger said since the committee had been treated with the utmost courtesy by all the officers, he would be sorry should any erroneous impression become prevalent throughout the country. General Dick and all the committeemen concurred with the views of the Pennsylvania representative and the matter was then dropped. Cadet Bierchie O. Mahaffy, of Texas, who was a classmate of former Cadet Booz, was called and sworn.

LOOKING FOR LOCATIONS.

W. F. Graeter, chairman of the committee on manufacturers of the Commercial club, has received communications from five different firms in various parts of the country who are desirous of securing new locations. The communications will be taken under consideration at once. Mr. Graeter states that a great favor would be conferred upon the committee by those owning land adjacent to railways if they would furnish the committee with a proper description of the land so that the required information could be given without inconvenience.

THE SINGING EVANGELIST.

Rev. Frank Miller, of Elgin, Ill., the "singing evangelist," will open a series of evangelistic services this evening at Bethany Presbyterian church in Nebraska. Rev. Miller is not only a fine preacher, but his vocal ability is excellent, and his meetings will undoubtedly be very successful. The meetings will be held each evening for a few weeks.

WILL ENLARGE LIBRARY.

The directors of the R. F. C. club held an important business meeting last evening and among other things decided to make extensive additions to their library. The number of books will be doubled and the very best works will be chosen.

DR. WOODS IS ACQUITTED

CASE NOT ESTABLISHED IN FRANCE'S COURT.

It Was Proved That Miller Child Did Not Have Membraneous Croup While He Was There.

Dr. I. N. Woods, of East Washington street, was arraigned in France's court this morning on two separate charges. The affidavits were filed by Dr. Drayer, city health officer, and charged Dr. Woods with having treated a case of membraneous croup, a contagious disease, and not having reported the same to the health office. The other charge was for failure to report the case to the sanitary policeman of the district. The case involved was that of the death of a child of Mrs. Sophie Miller, on Lavina street, last Sunday, which had been under Dr. Woods' treatment, and on Sunday Dr. Martz was called, pronounced the disease membraneous croup and the child died an hour or two later. Dr. Woods, it must be known, is not a practitioner under any of the old schools, but heals by Christian Science Treatment. Justice France heard the evidence and acquitted the defendant on both charges. Dr. Woods testified that he was called to see the child on Saturday morning and found it suffering from an ordinary cold, with no symptoms of croup, membraneous or otherwise. He administered his treatment by the usual Christian Science method and left and was not called again. The mother corroborated the doctor's statement and admitted that there were no signs of croup when he called. On Sunday morning the symptoms first appeared and she sent for Dr. Martz about 11 o'clock. It was after 2 when he called and the child was then beyond aid. There being no evidence at all against the defendant, an acquittal followed. Another affidavit was then filed against Dr. Woods by Constable Bagby, charging him with practicing medicine without a license. Justice France has that case still under advisement.

PRESIDENT MEETS CABINET

EXECUTIVE ABLE TO ATTEND SESSION.

No Business of Importance Came Up at the Meeting, Which Was Very Brief.

Washington, Jan. 16.—The cabinet meeting today, which was held in the private parlor of the white house, and which was the first one held since the president's illness, lasted about thirty minutes. No business question was brought before the meeting. It is likely there will not be another cabinet meeting, unless something extraordinary occurs, before the beginning of the week. The president is feeling very well today, but he still shows to a slight degree his illness and that he has not fully recovered his usual vigor.

C. T. Pidgeon, G. B. Saylor, R. E. Pidgeon, C. B. Turner and O. W. Riebel, the energetic quintet of salesmen for the Armstrong millinery house, leave this week upon their initial trips of the campaign for spring business.

TO TAKE HIS SEAT

SENATOR QUAY STARTS FOR WASHINGTON.

COMMISSION IS FORWARDED

WILL BE SWORN IN TOMORROW SOME TIME.

RETURNS TO HARRISBURG

TO HELP PUT PARTY'S STATE REFORM BILLS THROUGH.

Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 16.—Senator M. S. Quay left at 9:35 this morning for Washington in company with his daughter, Miss Cora, and Private Secretary Wright.

Edgar C. Gerwig, private secretary to Governor Stone, went to Washington this afternoon with the senator's commission. Mr. Quay expects to qualify tomorrow as a senator and then return to Harrisburg and direct the passage of the reform bills to which the Quay republicans are committed. The senate and house met jointly at noon and verified the vote for senator at yesterday's session, after which Lieutenant Governor Cobin formally declared Mr. Quay's election.

Both bodies will meet tomorrow and compute the vote at the last general election for auditor general and congressman at large.

A recess will be taken after this formality until Monday evening to allow the presiding officers to complete their committee assignments.

The standing committees will probably be announced at Monday evening's session. The reports of the house and senate republican state committees are expected to be submitted and confirmed at the same time.

Speaker Marshall received a telegram today from a party of Pittsburg manufacturers and business men requesting him to invite Governor Stone, Senators Quay and Penrose and the members of the legislature who voted for Mr. Quay to attend a banquet to be given in his honor in Pittsburg at a time to be fixed later.

THE DELAWARE TIE-UP.

Dover, Del., Jan. 16.—The general assembly met in joint session at noon today and voted for two United States senators—one for the full term beginning March 4, the other for the unexpired term of four years. The vote was practically the same as in separate session yesterday, the twenty-nine republicans again dividing on both propositions. The ballot for the long term was as follows:

Kenny (dem.), 23; Addicks (union rep.), 16; Dupont (rep.), 8; scattering, (rep.), 4.

For the short term: Saulbury (dem.), 22; Addicks (union rep.), 16; Richards (rep.), 9; scattering (rep. and dem.), 4. Absent, one regular republican.

Necessary to choice 26.

CLARK ELECTED SENATOR.

Helena, Mont., Jan. 16.—W. A. Clark was today elected United States senator to succeed Senator Carter.

LOCAL LINES.

CAPITALISTS HERE

MINING MAGNATES MEET IN FORT WAYNE.

WATCH DR. HICK'S PROCESS OF EXTRACTING PRECIOUS METALS FROM THE ORE.

MANY TESTS AT BASS WORKS

VISITORS ARE DELIGHTED AT THE SHOWING.

About twenty-five capitalists who are interested in the gold mines of the Dahlonega Consolidated and the Standard Mining companies are in Fort Wayne today watching with a great deal of interest a series of exhaustive laboratory tests of the Hicks process of extracting gold from ores.

The tests are being conducted at the laboratory of the Bass works under the personal direction of Dr. Hicks, the chemist of that institution, who is the inventor of the process which promises to far eclipse any previous method of securing the precious metal from among the baser metals where nature implanted it. Among the visitors are Hon. S. S. Shutt, of Spencerville; T. L. Bigelow, John Seibert, Louis Seibert, William Fisher and A. S. Hickey, of Columbus, Ohio; Frank Adams and Jacob Rosenthal, of Delaware, Ohio; Mark Hopkins, of St. Clair, Mich.; Mark Walser and B. P. Reimund, of Chicago; J. W. Adams, of Chattanooga; Capt. G. H. Breyman, Fred Welch, E. W. Newton, F. G. Thomson, J. M. Bloomer, Calvin Barker, W. E. Hetrick, Daniel Miller and B. C. Shaw, of Toledo.

Many of these gentlemen are men of abundant means, and as the Dahlonega company is financially interested in Dr. Hicks' process they were highly gratified with the showings made today. The larger machinery is not yet ready for operation, but the laboratory tests have proven so signally successfully that there is no doubt of the success of the process. In a test made from black sand taken from the vicinity of the Georgia mines, the process developed pure gold to the value of $100.72 for each ton of the sand. Upon the actual ore of the mines the yield is even greater. The Hicks process of extracting the precious metal is already attracting the attention of the mining world, and samples of ore from every part of the country are being shipped to this city for test. The visitors today are registered at the Randall, and they seem of the unanimous opinion that the process of the Fort Wayne inventor will revolutionize the mining business, for it secures a greater value in gold at much less expense than any of the other systems now in use. As soon as the larger plant is completed a more thorough test will be given it.

DEATH'S RECORD OF THE DAY

MRS. HENRY ETZOLD PASSES FROM EARTH.

Affliction Bears Heavily Upon a Widow's Home—The Deaths and Funeral Notices.

Mrs. Margaret Etzold, wife of Henry Etzold, of 110 Webster street, died at 7:45 o'clock this morning, after a brief illness from congestion of the lungs. Though in poor health for nearly a year, Mrs. Etzold's condition was not deemed serious until three days ago, when a severe cold developed into the disease which resulted in her death today.

Mrs. Etzold had reached the age of 68 years, 10 months and 11 days. She was born in Bavaria, but came to Fort Wayne more than forty years ago, and her husband was engaged for many years in the business of shoemaking. The surviving relatives include the husband and six children—Mrs. William Homburg, of St. Louis; Mrs. William Auman, of this city; Louis Etzold, in Kansas; Clem Etzold, at Huntington, and William and Fred Etzold, of this city. The deceased was a member of Emanuel's Lutheran church.

FRANCE.

Perry France, the little son of Mrs. Abram France, died this morning from diphtheria, at the age of 7 years. The hand of affliction has lain heavily upon this family during the past few months. Last summer the father died suddenly. A few weeks ago a child passed away. Monday a daughter succumbed to diphtheria and the burial had hardly occurred when her brother's death occurred today.

BENNIGIN.

Hugh Bennigin, a laborer employed at the Bash farm, about seven miles west of the city, died very suddenly this afternoon. Mr. Bennigin was taken sick while eating dinner about 12:30 and died at 2:30, the cause of death apparently being heart failure. Dr. Koontz, of Roanoke, and Dr. Sweringen, of this city, were summoned at once, but the stricken man was beyond all human aid, and expired shortly after their arrival.

Deceased was the son of Hugh Bennigin, of 201 East Lewis street, and was about fifty-four years of age. He is married and leaves a wife and six children. Three brothers, Julian, Joseph and Henry, and two sisters, Lena and Mary, survive him.

FUNERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

McNally.—Funeral services of C. J. McNally will be held Thursday morning at 9:30 o'clock from the Cathedral.

A SHERIFF'S PLEA.

battering ram, the door was forced from its hinges and the mob surged into the corridor by the narrow doorway. A huge iron bar was secured and the iron door of the cellroom attacked. This was finally bent so that it could be forced far enough back for men to climb over it. Several gained an entrance in this manner. In the meantime the crowd had pushed down the side gate of the stockade and in a moment there was a yelling pack in the jailyard.

The side door, which was made of heavy sheetiron, was the next object of attack. Several of the thoughtful ones had provided themselves with sledgehammers and cold chisels, and it was the work of only a few moments before the hinges were cut from inside. It was off its hinges in a moment. More men pushed inside, the iron bar was again called into play and the doors of the cellroom broken down.

"Then the cry went up: "He is not here; he has escaped. Search the courthouse; there is a tunnel between and he has been taken out that way."

Some one with sharp eyes spied a shapeless mass crouched in one corner of the dark cell, and there was an exultant cry: "He is here; we've got him; bring the keys!"

MEN LAUGH HYSTERICALLY.

Several keys were found lying around the corridors and these were passed to the leaders. They would not work. Then again a sledge hammer was called into action and in five minutes the heavy lock had been broken off. A yell of terror issued from the cell. Inside the tension was so great that strong men filled the room with hysterical laughter. Outside the crowd was yelling in a manner that has perhaps never before been heard in the city of Leavenworth. Inside the cell those rushed who were nearest the door and a moment later issued forth dragging the negro by the coat collar. He had been struck over the head with a hammer, but was still conscious.

Men fought to get at the prisoner. These infuriated beings struck savagely at him and hit only his captors, who guarded him well.

"Don't hurt him!" they cried.

"We'll burn him!" was the response.

DRAGGED TO THE COURT HOUSE.

Outside the stockade the crowd surged. Alexander and his captors were surrounded by a solid wall of humanity. Across Third street and up the hill into the court house yard they dragged him. Then they stopped still.

"Confess before we harm you," they said.

"I am innocent. I am dying for what another man did. I see lots of my friends here. They know I did not do it. If I had been guilty I would have said so at the penitentiary and would have stayed there for life. The warden told me so. The policemen told me so. Would not I have told them if I was guilty?"

"You lie!" they cried, and one huge fellow, filled more with the lust of blood than the feelings of a man, struck him in the forehead with his fist three times. This seemed not to have the slightest effect on the negro. He was turning white When he talked his voice was steady. He spoke with the resignation of a man who sees only before him death—slow, perhaps, but certain—and was prepared to meet it in its most awful form.

When he had finished talking a move was made for a large cottonwood tree in the northeast corner of the court house yard. He was backed up against it and a chain was hunted for. One could not be found, and while they waited Alexander was given another chance to confess.

"My God, men," he cried in his agony. "I have told you that I am innocent. I can't tell you any more. I didn't do it."

"He lies; burn him!" cried the mob.

"Take him where he committed the murder," suggested one.

The suggestion met with instant approval, and the crowd, carrying the negro, pushed on for Fourth street. There were many wagons standing about and into one of these they threw him. The wagon was started for the vicinity of Lawrence avenue and Spruce street, followed on the run by the crowd.

PROTESTS HIS INNOCENCE.

At 5:15 o'cock Alexander was brought to the scene of the murder of Pearl Forbes, at the corner of Lawrence avenue and Spruce street. The exact spot where the murdered girl was found was located by the leaders of the crowd and there a semicircle was formed. Alexander was brought up in a wagon with a dozen men The wagon was stopped in front of the ravine, and surrounded by the crowd, the leader of the men who held Alexander called for silence. The roar ceased and Alexander was shoved forward for the crowd to gaze at. A howl went up, which was quickly hushed as the prisoner raised his shackled hands and began to speak. Twice he started and the crowd drowned his trembling voice.

"You are going to kill me, whatever I say," he said, "but you men are wrong. I want to tell you right now you've got the wrong man. I did not do that, and some day you men here will run up against the man who did. I know it ain't any use to say so, for you're going to kill me, but I didn't do it."

BOUND TO THE STAKE.

The men standing behind him shoved him from the wagon and the roar from the crowd drowned every other sound. The negro was quickly driven down the embankment to the pile of wood, with his hands still shackled, and there bound to the stake. Long before the wagon containing the doomed man arrived at the place a crowd had gathered Many carried rails and boards. Several seized railroad irons and carried them to the ravine. The spot chosen for the stake was the exact one on which Pearl Forbes' body was found on Lawrence avenue, near the Santa Fe track and 100 yards north of Spruce street.

The first thing done was to plant the railroad iron upright in the mud. This was made fast to cross irons, firmly bound to the upright iron with wire. Around the improvised stake wood and boards were piled. To this the man was dragged and chained in a standing position to the upright railroad iron. Chains and irons were wrapped about him, and with his hands still shackled, he was made fast to the post. Coal oil was then poured over him and the match touched to him.

QUESTIONED BY GIRL'S FATHER.

Before the match was applied John Forbes the father of the murdered girl, stepped up to Alexander and said:

"Are you guilty of murdering my daughter?"

"I don't know what you have me here for," said the doomed man. Forbes replied:

"For killing my girl on this very spot."

"Mr. Forbes, if that's your name, you have the wrong man."

"Burn him! Burn him!" cried the crowd.

"Gentlemen, you've got lots of time," said Alexander. "You're burning an innocent man. You took advantage of me. You gave me no show. Can I see my mother?"

A man in the crowd called for the mother but she was not in the crowd. He then said:

"Will you let me shake hands with all my friends?"

"You have no friends in this crowd, you beast," said one of the men in charge of the negro. "If you have anything to say do so in a hurry."

Another man then stepped up and said to Alexander.

"Make your peace with your God, nigger, for you will surely die."

Coal oil was then applied for the second time, and while it was being done Alexander called to friends in the crowd and told them good-by. He did not seem to realize that he was to be burned at the stake, and talked rationally until John Forbes, the father of the murdered girl, lighted the match. Again Alexander was asked to make a confession, but he replied that he had nothing to say.

CROWD YELLS AS NEGRO DIES.

As the flames leaped about him, Alexander turned ghastly pale and for the first time realized that his death was near. He clasped his hands together and began to swing to and fro, while the crowd yelled.

In less than five minutes he was hanging limp and lifeless by the chains that bound him. As soon as the crowd saw that life was extinct it began to slowly disperse. There were hundreds of the morbid, however, who stayed to the last.

Men kept piling on wood all the time until 7 o'clock, when the flames were allowed to die down. From 6 to 8 o'clock there was a continuous stream of people going to the scene of the burning. These were persons who had been unable to get away from their work in the afternoon, but were determined not to miss seeing the awful spectacle.

When the fire had died down sufficiently to allow the crowd to approach what remained of Alexander there was a wild scramble to obtain relics, bits of charred flesh, pieces of chain, scraps of wood—everything that could possibly serve as a souvenir was seized on with morbid eagerness.

SOCIETY WOMEN VIEW BURNING.

The procession that followed the mob from the jail to the place of execution was joined by the best people of the city. Society women returning from a swell reception in the fashionable part of the city joined the mob in their carriages with liveried drivers. They approached closely to the scene of the burning, standing up in their carriages and watching the sufferings of the doomed man. Every class of citizens was represented in the mob. The business man stood shoulder to shoulder with the workman and there were boys, women and girls in the melee. The mob was incited by the great number of insults to women by negroes which have occurred recently.

The whole community is shocked at the deed. It is the sole topic of conversation on the streets and in the homes. There is considerable fear that further lynchings will take place on account of the feeling against the negroes and the resistance some of them have shown to mob law.

NO WORDS OF PITY HEARD.

About 9 o'clock the coroner and two policemen went and got the remains, taking them to an undertaker's establishment. The coroner's jury has been named, but the inquest will not be held for a few days.

The remains were viewed by thousands and up to the time they were taken away the carriages and vehicles were continually passing by the spot. No expressions of regret or pity are heard from any source.

CALLS SHERIFF A COWARD.

Topeka, Kan., Jan. 16.—Governor W. E. Stanley is very indignant at the result of the lynching at Leavenworth. He says it will result in the death penalty in Kansas, as it should do. The governor condemns Sheriff Everhardy of Leavenworth in unmeasured terms. He says the sheriff should be made to make suitable retribution if such a thing would be possible.

"The sheriff of Leavenworth is either a despicable scoundrel or a despicable coward," said the governor. "There was no reason in the world that the negro should not have been protected to the last with the whole militia power of the state, and the sheriff knew it all the time.

"I ordered the militia of Lawrence and Topeka to be ready, and they would have been sent to the scene of the trouble the minute the sheriff would say he needed them. Instead of that, however, the sheriff was very sure that he could guard the man. Upon receiving repeated assurances from Sheriff Everhardy that he could and would protect the prisoner to the last, I very reluctantly countermanded the order for the troops to go to Leavenworth.'

CONDEMN THE ACT.

Topeka, Kas., Jan. 16.—A joint resolution was passed by the legislature today deploring and condemning the Leavenworth lynching. The resolution favors a most rigid investigation of all the acts and circumstances attending the lynching and demands that the perpetrators be punished to the full extent of the law.

ABOUT THE COURT HOUSE.

The county commissioners deny the statement made in a morning paper that an agreement had been reached between them and the constructors of the Southwestern railroad for the reconstruction of the bridge at Reidmiller's. The bridge there is an iron one and not a wooden one, as stated, and if it is not strong enough to carry the Southwestern company's cars, their contract with the commissioners plainly states that they must strengthen it to the satisfaction of the superintendent of bridges without any assistance from the county. The matter has never been taken up by the commissioners and has never been officially brought to their notice. They will, however, visit the bridge in the course of a day or two to make their regular inspection and will investigate the surroundings. The building of the road will develop a lot of new territory out west and in course of time a new bridge will be required at that point. If the railroad company will agree to build a bridge like the Wells street bridge, or sufficient to meet requirements for a number of years, the commissioners will gladly entertain a proposition to build the abutments now and save the expense of an entire new structure in the future, but up to this time nothing of that character is before them.

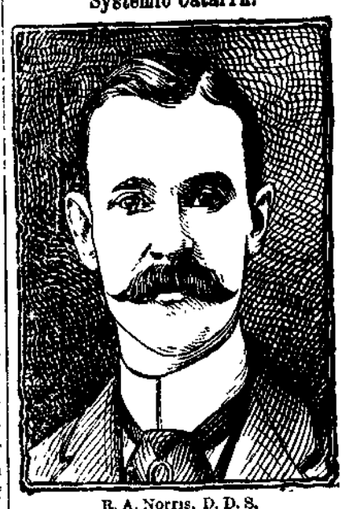
A CHICAGO DENTIST

Relates How He Found a Cure for Systemic Catarrh.



R. A. Norris, D. D. S.

R. A. Norris, Doctor of Dental Surgery, 126 State street, Chicago, Ill., writes to The Peruna Medicine Company as follows:

"I desire to express for the benefit of the public my experience with the famous catarrh remedy, Peruna I was afflicted with catarrh of the head and throat for twelve years. I had tried many remedies without avail. I applied to several doctors, but they were not able to cure me. I learned of the remedy, Peruna, through your pamphlets and took it for four months. It entirely cured me, and as I took the remedy three years ago, I consider the cure permanent."

Hon. Clement M. Hammond is one of the best known newspaper men in New York City. Writing to The Peruna Medicine Co., he says:

"For about six years I have had trouble every fall and winter with my voice. At times it has extended to my bronchial tubes and lungs. I think all this trouble came from whooping cough, which I had when I was about twelve years old, and which left me with catarrh. Since I have taken Peruna, my voice has been clearer than in over two years, all of which I am willing to testify to." Mr. Hammond's address is "The Arlington," 64 Montague street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Address Dr. Hartman, Columbus, O., for a free catarrh book.

AT PATTERSON'S

Tomorrow you can buy Stein Block suits, worth $17, for $9.60. Suit worth $20 for $12.

IT IS ON

We have begun a sale that is a sale. A sale to sell stuff. All men's, boys' and children's suits, top coats and reefers will be discounted 20 per cent. with the exception of plain blue and black suits, which will be discounted 10 per cent.

We do not do this because we are overloaded. Our stock is very small but if we have what you want it will be right in style. We have sold the big end of our stock at a profit; now you can have what is left very cheap. While we were East we closed out the entire stock of Stein Block and Garson Meyer suits and overcoats. This word "entire" sounds large but in this case it is not as the two houses had only about $6,000.00 worth of heavy weights left in stock. We took them all. We have marked them at about the regular wholesale price and put them in the sale at 20 per cent discount. Think what it means—New nobby clothing at 20 per cent. below wholesale prices. Come and see what we have for you.

SALE IS NOW IN PROGRESS.

FRIENDS OF WAR-TIME DAYS.

Gen. Reub Williams, in his Warsaw Daily Times, says:

"Our old war time friend and square-dealing gentleman, George Reiter, of Fort Wayne, well-known to the people of Warsaw and for many years a manufacturer of cigars in the "Summit City," was in town on Monday, and as usual gave us a call. During the stirring days of recruiting in the years of the war, we saw much of Mr. Reiter, who in every possible way aided the union cause, and who had a number of warm personal friends in the regiment the editor of this paper commanded, and kept in touch with all its marches, camps, skirmishes and battles, so that even at this late day he is well posted in all the movements it made during the four years' struggle. We never meet him but the war days are renewed in the minds of both and we have kept up our acquaintance ever since; consequently we are always pleased to see George Reiter."

FRAGRANT GRAIN FIELDS.

Food That Takes One Back to Childhood.

"The delicious odor that comes when you pour hot milk or cream over Grape-Nuts, takes one back to childhood and the wide, golden harvest fields when the wind blew in your face the scent of ripened grain, and made you, oh so hungry!

"Of all the appetizing foods, Grape-Nuts food is the chief. I was led to change my diet and take up Grape-Nuts, from the fact that I had a very serious, long-standing case of constipation, which originated from coffee drinking. Constant headaches, backaches, and a stomach that felt like lead, was the condition; while the mind was filled with misgivings of all sorts, and I verily believe I would have gone insane if it had not been for the temporary relief from various cures for constipation, but there seems to be no permanent relief except in good food like Grape-Nuts.

"This food is the same to a weak stomach as kind words and a gentle touch to an aching heart. All my doubts and fear and distress of mind disappeared as soon as I found a food that I could digest and which relieved my difficulties. Life became brighter and better, my home a "sweet home." I have proved conclusively that the food is really predigested and that it is a great nerve and energy builder. Of course I can hardly express my gratitude for the relief I have had." WOODMEN'S DELEGATES.

The state convention of the Modern Woodmen of America is to be held at Evansville February 6, and delegates have been selected from Allen county camps as follows: Jacob Bill, jr., Edwards camp No. 3127; alternate, F. A. Blaising, New Haven camp No. 3656; F. E. Hayes, Fort Wayne camp No. 4761; alternate, W. J. Snyder, Huntertown camp No. 3574. C. W. Miller presided at the county convention, with George H. B. Freeby as secretary.

OUTLINED A PROGRAM.

The Elks' committee has roughly outlined a program for the state meeting to be held in this city in June, and it is expected that the opening day, June 11, will be devoted to the reception of members. Business sessions will occur on the day following, with a theatrical performance in the evening. On the afternoon of the 13th there will be a parade, and in the evening a monster social session. Other features to be introduced are a picnic, band contests and a base ball game, and there will be prizes given for the lodge having the largest delegation in attendance, for the fattest man, the strongest man and the handsomest man. Sub-committees will be appointed within a short time to carry out the details of the program.

JUSTICE MOVING SWIFTLY

PATERSON TRIALS NEARING CONCLUSION.

State Has Rested and Defense May Close Case Today—The Bosschieter Murder Case.

Paterson, N. J., Jan. 16.—Interested crowds today filled the approaches to and the room in which the court of oyer and terminer is sitting for the trial of three of the alleged murderers of Jennie Bosschieter, the mill girl. The state having rested its case last night the day's proceedings began with the presentation by counsel of the case for the defense. Of the three accused men Death most showed the effects of the strain through which they are passing, and dejection and extreme nervousness were depicted in his countenance and movements. McAlister, on the other hand, was comparatively self-possessed, but Campbell was evidently troubled and anxious. There is a possibility of the defense closing its case today and the trial being concluded tomorrow with the summing up and judge's charge.

When Judge Dixon opened court counsel for the accused asked that Scul Thorpe, the hack driver, be recalled so that he might be confronted with the record of his conviction of a crime of which he had previously been found guilty.

Judge Dixon denied the request on the ground that the point sought to be made against Scul Thorpe was immaterial.

Michael Dynn then delivered his address, opening the case for the defense. He made mention of the grief into which the family of Jennie Bosschieter had been plunged by the tragedy and added that the case was also sad on account of the youth of the prisoners and because it had brought such disgrace upon their families.

Counsel promised to prove that the death of Jennie Bosschieter was not caused in the commission of a criminal assault, and also that the charge of wilful murder could not stand against the defendants.

Mr. Dunne proceeded with a narrative of the events preceding the death of Jennie Bosschieter, the purpose of it being to show that the meeting of the four men, McAlister, Campbell, Death and Kerr, was not prearranged and that the girl made the first advances that opened the way for the meeting at Saal's saloon.

KEPT FIRE FROM SPREADING.

An immense pile of sawdust around the site of the old ice house which burned down near the St. Joe river bridge Tuesday took fire late last night and spread so rapidly as to endanger other property in the vicinity. A number of employes of the Centlivre brewery, together with citizens of Spy Run avenue, put in a lively night keeping the blaze from communicating to other property.

GOSPEL MEETINGS.

There will be gospel services at the Simpson M. E. church this evening, conducted by the pastor, Rev. T. J. Johnson. Prayer meetings will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, as follows:

2:30—At the home of Mr. Meriman, corner of Creighton avenue and Smith street; leader, Mrs. Sadie Siegler.

2:30—At the home of J. C. Werkman, 76 West Butler street; leader, Miss Grace Southern.

2:30—At the home of Mr. Baker, 245 Clay street; leader, Mrs. Florence Zook.

LOCAL NEWS.

TO BUILD SCHOOL THIS YEAR

MODERN BUILDING FOR ST. MARY'S PARISH.

Will Cost About $22,000, of Which Nearly $17.00 Has Been Subscribed.

A handsome brick school building, equipped with every modern convenience, will shortly replace the old school house of St. Mary's Catholic church at the corner of Lafayette and Jefferson streets, and it is expected that the new structure will be completed and ready for occupation by the middle of September.

The matter was decided upon at the regular service on Sunday morning and the pastor, Very Rev. John H. Oechtering, appointed a committee on finance. The school question has been hanging fire for the past two years, and during that time the sum of $17,000 was subscribed. Father Oechtering was unwilling to proceed with the work until the full amount had been subscribed, and as it is expected that no difficulty will be encountered in raising the remaining $5,000, he has decided to undertake the construction of the new building this year. The finance committee will call upon such members of the congregation as have not yet given in their subscriptions and it is expected that when the committee has finished its work the subscriptions will be such as to insure the building of the new school this spring.

The new school will be 129x53 feet, with basement and two stories, and will face Lafayette street. There will be six class rooms and accommodations for about 350 boys. The basement will contain a large room, to be used for social purposes, and also room for the heating apparatus. The second floor will be devoted to class rooms, and the entire third story will be used as a hall for entertainments, meetings of societies, etc. The work of tearing down the present structure will commence in April and the work of construction on the new building will be pushed as rapidly as possible, that the school may be completed in time for the opening of the fall term in September.

The present school building was constructed about forty-five years ago, during the pastorate of Rev. Father Wenz. It is inadequate for the present needs and it has even long been considered unsafe. There are five instructors at the present time, but the number will be increased when the new school is completed. The old school building is a landmark of Fort Wayne, and many of the older members of St. Mary's congregation attended the sessions there in their youth.

Preliminary sketches and specifications for the new structure were prepared by Architects Kendrick & Bradley and as soon as the finance committee has completed its subscription list, they will be submitted to Rt. Rev. Bishop Alerding for approval.

S. W. Stirk circle, No. 18, Ladies of the G. A. R., will meet at the home of Mrs. Welch, 125 Walton avenue, Friday afternoon, Jan. 18.

The Ladies' Aid club of the A. M. E. church will give an entertainment at the church on Thursday, Jan. 24.

Mrs. Ellen Gregory, mother of Mrs. Frank P. Jones, of this city, died in Detroit, Mich., on Sunday morning. Mrs. Jones left yesterday for Detroit to attend the funeral.

Mrs. Isaac Weil and son Elmer have returned from the south.

THE MARKETS.

Chicago, Jan. 16.—May wheat opened today ⅛@⅜c lower at 76⅞ to 76⅝c, under the influence of lower cables. The depression of outside markets further influenced the market and May during the first hour dropped to 76⅜@76½c. Local receipts were 63 cars, none of contract grade. Minneapolis and Duluth reported 322 cars against 291 last week and 231 a year ago.

Corn was dull and featureless. May opened ⅛c to a shade lower, at 38⅛@38¼c to 38¼c, and sold to 38c in sympathy with the wheat weakness. Receipts were 421 cars, two of contract grade.

Oats were dull and easier with wheat. May opened a shade lower to unchanged at 24¾@24⅞c and sold to 24¾c. Receipts were 219 cars.

Provisions opened weak on heavy hog receipts and lower prices at the yards and declined later on small demand. May pork opened 2½c lower at $14.25 and declined to $13.95; May lard 5@7½c down at $7.52½@7.55, dropping to $7.45 and May ribs 5@7½c depressed at $7.17½@7.20, selling to $7.12½.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, Jan. 16.—Federal steel was forced down to 50 on running sales of 8,000 shares at the opening compared with 51¼ last night. The stock was supported and rallied feverishly and there was a demand from the shorts in the other steel stocks, steel and wire and tin plate rising about a point each.

Manhattan, Burlington and St. Louis and San Francisco rose from 1 to 1¼ and Erie was in large demand at a fractional advance. The general list showed opening changes much mixed.

Speculation became quite uneven under the diverse movement in special stocks. Manhattan managed to rise 2 points and helped the tractions. Burlington's progress to 144 steadied the grangers, and there was some recovery in the Pacifics. Liquidation was very general in the steel stocks, a rally to 51 and subsequent dip to near 49 in Federal Steel unsettling the group. At 11 o'clock the railways were improving all around while the specialties were receding.

St. Paul became conspicuous and rose vigorously to 155½, almost 6 points above yesterday's close. The adroit manipulation of this stock caused uneasiness among the shorts in other properties and the demand to cover advanced many stocks from 1½ to 3 points.

Delaware and Hudson, Sugar, Illinois Central, Northern Pacific, Burlington and St. Louis and San Francisco second preferred were absorbed heavily. The steel stocks made intermitent rallies, but did not hold well. Federal Steel met large offerings on the rallies. St. Paul came back to below 153 before midday and the general tone became reactionary in a duller market. The bond market was quiet but firm.

THE MONEY MARKET.

New York, Jan. 16.—Money on call steady at 3 per cent; prime mercantile paper, 4@5 per cent; sterling exchange steady with actual business in bankers' bills at $4.87@4.87¼ for demand and at $4.83¼@4.83½ for 60 days; posted rates, $4.84@4.88; commercial bills, $4.82½@4.83; silver certificates, 64½@65½c; bar silver, 63⅜c; Mexican dollars, 45¾c.

RICHMOND WANTS NILL.

Manager Byram, of the Richmond base ball team, has writtten Manager Cleary, of the Shamrocks, relative to signing George Nill, the fast second baseman of the Shamrocks, for the Richmonds for this season. Young Nill is a base ball player of great promise and was one of the best men with the Shamrocks last season. He played with the Anderson team of the Indiana league early last summer, and later in the season played second for the Fort Wayne league team, filling the position most creditably. The Richmond team is one of the fastest in the state and they have already asked for a date with the Shamrocks in the spring.

The Shamrocks will hold their annual meeting Wednesday evening, the 23d, for the purpose of choosing officers and arranging for the coming season.

BASE BALL GOSSIP.

Frank DeHass Robison is out in a statement saying that the American association is a sure go, is under the protection of the National league and has plenty of capital behind it. It will include both Louisville and Indianapolis and will interfere with the present plans of the Inter-State, but will not affect them materially.

M. J. Finn, owner of the Youngstown franchise, has gone to Little Rock to accept a lucrative position as magnate in the Southern league. Youngstown is permanently out of the Inter-State and will join fortunes with the Western Pennsylvania league.

Jack Glasscock's Sioux City team has been transferred to Pueblo and Minneapolis has taken Sioux City's place in the Western league.

The Enquirer's Dayton base ball correspondent is industrious if not enterprising. Every once in awhile he gets himself busy and telegraphs his paper a lot of stuff that has from a week to ten days' growth of whiskers on it. He has just discovered that the Inter State is still alive.

The names of Otto Kruger, who played short for Fort Wayne last season, and Jack Harper, the big twirler, who was also a member of the local team, appear on the list of members of the St. Louis National league club for the season of 1901.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat: "Frank Figgemeier, the stalwart twirler, is wintering in St. Louis and intends returning to New Castle next season. He had good success there the past campaign and is in receipt of an increased contract to sign for 1901."—Frank will find a "to let" sign in New Castle's window when he comes back.

George Tebeau is in Kansas City, superintending the early work on Shelley Park. He said to a Times reporter: "If the American league drops Indianapolis it will mean that the Western league will get that city, as well as Louisville. The American league has a partial hold on Louisville, but if it drops Indianapolis we can get both cities. What cities will be dropped in the present Western league is a question that can not now be answered, but it will be the two cities that showed the smallest gate receipts last year. That much is sure."

Out of the smoke of the struggle comes something new and funny. The Eastern league, allied, it is alleged, by the National, is going to arise in its might and hit both Johnson and Richter the most terrific wallop since Fitzsimmons thumped Tom Sharkey. The Eastern, tired of hearing so much expansion talk, and thoroughly enraged over the determination of the American to steal its players, is going to expand. It is going to lay a large, damp hand on Washington and Baltimore, and is going to retake Buffalo. Its circuit will be Providence, Baltimore, Washington, Buffalo, Toronto, Montreal, Syracuse, and one other town—maybe Rochester or New Haven.

CARD OF THANKS.

In behalf of Fort Wayne lodge No. 136, Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, I wish in this manner to express sincere thanks for the kindly assistance and expressions of sympathy given us at the funeral of our late brother, F. A BATTLE WITH BURGLARS.

South Lyons, Mich., Jan. 16.—Six men broke into Carpenter & Jacobus' bank here last night, and after blowing off the outside door of the safe, blew open the steel money chest inside. The explosions wakened G. D. Hamilton, who lived near the bank, and he began an investigation. He was found by the burglars, who opened fire on him.

Hamilton, after shooting at the thieves several times, went for assistance and the burglars ran to the railroad track, where they found a handcar, on which they escaped. About $300 was stolen from the bank and as much more scattered about the office by the explosion.

SENTENCE POSTPONED.

New York, Jan. 16.—Cornelius L. Alvord, jr., who pleaded guilty last week to stealing $620,000 from the First National bank, was to have been sentenced by Judge Thomas in the United States circuit court today, but on the application of his counsel Judge Thomas postponed the sentence until tomorrow. Alvord's counsel had some matters pertaining to the case to fix up before Alvord goes away.

No Quiet Days for Us.

We will sell suits and overcoats to people that had no idea of buying. We sold you goods last fall for less money than you could buy elsewhere. That's why we sold you. Now what is left will be discounted 20 per cent. While we were East we closed out the entire stock of Stein Bloch, and Garson, Meyers' heavy weight suits and overcoats for men and boys.

The cheapest suit of clothes made by Stein Bloch costs $11 at wholesale. Now if we put Stein Bloch suits in the sale at $9.60 they will be apt to attract your attention, for you will know that they are at least $1.40 below the regular wholesale price. All heavy-weight underwear and men's and boys' pants will be discounted 10 per cent. Hats and caps discounted 10 per cent.

A Sad Inheritance.

A little girl out in Oregon when seven years old was stricken down with rheumatism, and the local doctor said it was hereditary, as the other members of the family had it. She suffered from it for five years, until a friend who had been cured of the disease by Ath-lo-pho-ros recommended this remedy to her. The doctors had tried five years to cure her, but Ath-lo-pho-ros did it with only two bottles. These inherited cases are the hardest to cure, but Ath-lo-pho-ros will do it, no matter what the cause or the conditions.

FREIGHT STOREAGE

THE RAILWAYS ADOPT A PROTECTIVE POLICY.

FIVE DAYS FREE FROM RENT

AFTERWARDS A CHARGE IS MADE ON ALL GOODS.

NEWS OF THE SHOP AND RAIL

GRIP SPREADS AND CRIPPLES THE SERVICE.

On and after February 1 the shipper or consignee of goods will be compelled to pay storage for all freight which remains in the freight houses in this city a longer period than five days, not counting Sunday or legal holidays. This storeage business will be placed in the hands of the local agents of the Western Weighing and Inspection Bureau, who have instructions to vigorously enforce the rule. The railway companies are driven to this step by certain shippers who abuse the privilege of storing goods at the freight house. For instance, at one of the freight houses in the city there are about 200 packages belonging to a Fort Wayne manufacturer that have remained there since last October. At another warehouse a certain heavy shipper has a big stock of his goods on hand all the time and makes the warehouse a storage and distributing quarters to the great annoyance and inconvenience of the agent and the men who are employed there. The establishing of a storage system is for the express purpose of correcting this evil. The companies do not go into it as a money-making business. In fact, they would be pleased if the occasion for storage charges would never arise. One of the agents said that it would effect only a very small per cent. of the shippers. All baggage depots have a similar rule, with a much shorter time limit.

REMEMBERED MR. STEGER.

A fourteen-piece silver tea service, suitably engraved, is included in the many wedding presents received today by Mr. and Mrs. Louis Steger, notice of whose marriage appears elsewhere in The Sentinel. This costly testimonial was presented by the men employed in the Pittsburg machine shop, where Mr. Steger is the clerk and timekeeper. It is indicative of the esteem entertained for the young man by the shopmen and no doubt is duly appreciated by him.

THE GRIP INCREASES.

The increased length of the sick lists on the road and in the shops indicate a coresponding spread of the grip among the employes of the Pennsylvania company. New victims are Engineers Tony Kelker, W. Dexter and C. F. Sweeny; Firemen G. W. Ervin, E. A. Jornod, W. E. Eaton, T. F. Gaskins and C. B. Whitman, and Shopmen S. G. Miller, T. J. Walda, E. F. Zeigler, R. G. Fenker, John Fay Szink, R. W. Shaw, F. P. Vananda and W. J. Redmon.

PANHANDLE CUTS RATES.

As a result of the construction of the Cincinnati, Richmond and Muncie railroad, the new line between Cincinnati and Chicago, the Panhandle has reduced freight rates between Richmond and Cincinnati. The Cincinnati, Richmond and Muncie cuts the distance from seventy-four to sixty-nine miles, and the Panhandle has given a seventy-mile rate. The Panhandle has also cut the rate on coal 30 cents a ton into Richmond from the Indiana fields.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Master Mechanic G. S. McKee, of the Wabash, is in Peru today on railway business.

Switch engine 501, just out of the Wabash repair shops, was sent to Tilton to go into service.

L. E. Thayer left for California last night in the interest of the Packard Piano and Organ company.

Foreman Joseph Slater, of the Bass blacksmith shop, is in Indianapolis upon a business mission today.

A. A. Serva and William Crighton, of the electric offices, are on duty again after an experience with the grip.

Rhinesmith & Simonson's shops resumed operations this morning. They were closed yesterday for repairs to the engine.

Joseph Bursley, of the Pennsylvania offices, is still confined to his home, being afflicted with the grip in an acute form.

Yard Conductor William Hayes, of the Pittsburg, is sick and Charles Malcom has temporary charge of the engine and crew.

Machinist Joseph Hessler and Blacksmith Charles Freese have taken positions in the Kerr Murray works.

W. E. Fetters, E. J. Seaton, C. A. Ames, C. Geffert and C. A. Ames are now employed as brakemen on the Pitstburg road.

Daniel Falva, a boilermaker employed at the Nickel Plate round house, returned to work yesterday, after a week's illness.

Brakemen C. Bitner, L. P. Stone and H. E. Baum, who had been on the sick list, reported for work on the Nickel Plate yesterday.

J. Osterman, who was off duty a week on account of the illness of his wife, reported for work at the Nickel Plate round house yesterday.

Purchasing Agent Frank Brown, of the Pennsylvania, left this morning for Kentucky and West Virginia to purchase ties for the company.

Passenger Engineer Peter Carter and Firemen J. E. Crowley and J. F. Magers, who were sick, resumed work on the Pittsburg this morning.

Nick Murphy, passenger conductor on the Grand Rapids and Indiana road, has returned from Niagara, where he spent a month with his mother.

The consolidation of the Colorado Midland road with the Colorado Southern leaves W. S. Bailey, general passenger agent of the former, out of position.

Nickel Plate Brakemen A. H. Staley and D. C. Potts are off duty, the former on account of sickness in his family and the latter for the purpose of rest.

A 2,000-light dynamo, transformers, meters, etc., left the electric works today for Crawley, La. A small machine was also shipped to Muskeegon, Mich.

J. Lachrefter and Aug. VonDissen, the former a hostler and the latter a brakeman, are sick and off duty. Patrolman L. E. Bigelow is also sick. All are Pittsburg employes.

An Indianapolis paper says it is intimated that the legislature will be asked to pass a law making it a criminal offense for scalpers to deal in forged or mutilated tickets.

C. Hackney, general superintendent of the Fox Pressed Steel company, who died last week, prior to taking that position, was superintendent of motive power of the Union Pacific.

Engineer Ed Wolf and Fireman George W. Conklin, of the Nickel Plate, are taking a few days rest. L. B. Studer, a fireman on the same road, is off duty on account of the sickness of his wife.

Fred Armack, machinist, took a position in the Bass shops this morning. "Chip," as his associates call Mr. Armack, was for a number of years an engineer in the city fire department. He was formerly employed at the Bass works.

The Wabash will put on a through passenger train running from Kansas City to New York for the Pan-American exposition, which opens May 1st, and part of the fifty new coaches contracted for last week will be used in equipping these trains.

It is stated that negotiations are pending for the purchase direct of the C., P. & V. road by the Pennsylvania company. The Panhandle has a through express train running by way of this river route at present, and the Pennsylvania company is said to hold a majority of the stock.

The Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen will have charge of the C. J. McNally funeral tomorrow and will attend in a body. The Trainmen will assemble at the hall, 140 Calhoun street, for that purpose at 8:30 o'clock tomorrow morning. The funeral occurs at 9 o'clock from the Cathedral.

The Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen find the demand for invitations to their annual ball much grater than they expected. They were compelled to order more of them printed. The men having charge of the affair are quite jubilant over the situation.

Indianapolis Journal: "An official of the Pennsylvania lines said yesterday that the earnings of the Panhandle lines west for 100 would exceed $21,000,000, and that notwithstanding the extraordinary expenses the profits of the year would be close to $1,340,000.

W. C. Frantz, trainmaster; C. W. Brant, chief dispatcher, and F. E. Ramsdall, superintendent of car service, are recent appointments announced by J. F. Angell, the new superintendent of the Toledo and Ohio Central road. The above officers will have headquarters at Bucyrus.

Five cars of train No. 76, loaded with grain, westbound on the Pittsburg road, left the rails at Van Wert at an early hour this morning. The balance of the train was soon made up and continued on its journey and the accident caused but little delay to traffic. The wreck crew was called out to replace the cars on the rails.

Brakemen H. Weber and H. F. Henschen, who were appointed a committee from the local lodge of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen to accompany the remains of their late brother, F. B. Burk, to Dry Run, Pa., returned home last night. Mrs. Burk and her children, the bereaved family, will return home early next week.

A. G. Blair, Canadian minister of railways and canals, will propose to the Dominion parliament the appointment of a railway commission to decide freight rates. He says there is coal enough in British Columbia to supply the world for a million years no obstacles will be put in the way of any roads that want to enter the Crow's Nest pass.

Conductor A. Kniffen and Brakemen James Blackburn, S. O. Middleton and C. W. Welsh are off duty. Mr. Kniffen has sickness in his family, Mr. Middleton is sick and the others have private business to look after. Brakeman W. H. Halleck resumed work yesterday after a short lay off. All are Pennsylvania employes.

The grip is now paying its "respects" to the Wabash shopmen. Foreman C. L. Hepp, of the blacksmith shop, and Foreman James Murray, of the boiler shop, have the malady. Mr. Murray remained on duty, but Mr. Hepp was compelled to go home at 9 o'clock. David Murray has charge of the shop in the absence of Mr. Hepp. William Bensman and William Heine, boilermakers, are sick also.

WILL IGNORE DEMANDS.

San Domingo, Republic of Santo Domingo, Jan. 16.—(Via Haytien cable).—The chamber of commerce has adopted a resolution to ignore the notice to the San Domingo Improvement company of New York declaring null and void the government's disposition and collection of the customs duties, and demanding that the directors of the company withdraw the notice which has caused irritation. The minister of foreign affairs will leave here tomorrow on a mission to the government of the United States. All is quiet here.

WARSHIP READY FOR SEA.

San Francisco, Jan. 16—The United States cruiser Boston, which for months has been undergoing repairs at the Mare Island navy yard, will soon be ready for sea. The gunboat Alert, which has also been laid up at Mare Island, will also go into commission within a few weeks and sail for the Philippines to be used in the inter-island service. The cruiser Marblehead is in dry dock and will not be ready for service again for a long time. The revenue cutter Shetis is at the navy yard, where considerable work is to be done on her.

WRECKED ON A BRIDGE.

Barstow, Cal., Jan. 16.—The Santa Fe overland train, east-bound, from San Francisco for Chicago, ran over a burning bridge at Siberia, seventy miles east of here, all the cars being derailed. The engine alone remained on the track. The passenger coaches maintained their upright position and no one was injured.

JUDGMENT POSTPONED.

Paris, Jan. 16.—Judgment in the Castellane-Wertheimer suit was today postponed for another week.

NOT HEREDITARY

In the main, consumption is not hereditary; it is infectious. People are too afraid of heredity; better not think of the subject at all. Infection occurs continually.

Low vital force is hereditary; which gives consumption its chance. And infection plants it.

Between the two, the crop is a big one: about one-sixth of the human race, so far as is known.

We suppose it needn't be 5 per cent, if people would take fair care and Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil.

The care saves life in all ways; the emulsion is specially aimed at the lungs, beside its general food-effect.

We'll send you a little to try, if you like.

A REVELATION

OPPOSE THE WABASH SUBSIDY

PENNSYLVANIA OFFICIALS ARE AGAINST IT.

Mr. McKim and Mr. Crawford Will Address Meeting of Business Men This Afternoon.

The request that Wayne township vote a subsidy of $100,000 to aid in the construction of the Fort Wayne and Butler railroad as a connecting link for the Wabash system, is meeting with vigorous opposition from the officials of the Pennsylvania company, who take the position that it would be unjust to tax their company for the purpose of aiding a rival corporation.

The first public statement of the Pennsylvania company in the matter will be made this afternoon to a committee of the Commercial club at a special meeting which has been called for 4 o'clock, and invitations were mailed this morning requesting a number of representative business men to attend and hear Supt. J. B. McKim and F. D. Crawford, superintendent of motive power of the northwestern system of the Pennsylvania company.

It will be recalled that on Thursday evening the Commercial club passed a resolution endorsing the subsidy, and Mr. McKim and Mr. Crawford will present the Pennsylvania's side of the matter today. It is said the latter company will make a vigorous fight against the subsidy, and it is also intimated that a large number of Pennsylvania employes will be later found electioneering against the appropriation.

SAVED A LIFE

The HOLLYWOOD,
Asbury Park, N. J., Feb. 3, 1900.

I read your advertisement in regard to Wine of Cardui in the Baltimore American, and it so favorably impressed me that on my visit to Baltimore during the holidays, I purchased a bottle of it for my adopted daughter, who was suffering with female troubles. She had been under the doctor's treatment for some time, and when her periods would come on, her sufferings were something terrible. I induced her to try it and the first dose brought on her menses. She took it regularly according to the directions, and was greatly relieved. To use her own words "It has saved my life".
J. WESLEY CROSS.

Mr. Cross' daughter realized what Wine of Cardui had done for her when she said "It has saved my life". Menstrual irregularities never continue long without involving falling of the womb, leucorrhœa, or some other dangerous malady which endangers life and happiness.

WINE OF CARDUI

Is an emmenagogue which lays the foundation for a woman's health by regulating the menstrual flow. Its beneficial result is felt almost immediately as the sharp, shooting, dragging and bearing-down pains disappear directly. Then the organs are strengthened and a final cure is the result. Do you not want such a cure as that? Nine out of every ten are struggling through life with some burden brought about by female troubles. You may be one of them. Throw the burden off! Many women besides Miss Cross have taken Wine of Cardui for relief and are well and happy to-day just as she is. Try Wine of Cardui. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles. Do not accept a substitute.

A CHINESE DINNER TABLE.

The table is ready, laid with an imposing show, a regulation number of regulation dishes, marshaled in regulation order, says a writer in Blackwood's Magazine, quaint porcelain stands filled with slices of oranges, pears or cold goose; towers of purple quince jelly squares, grapes or shredded chicken breast; saucers of shrimps salted in their skins, and, never forgotten, the famous eggs, preserved for years in lime, and served, sliced, in beds of brown jelly (much prized for their acrid and rather ammoniacal flavor, but not usually appreciated by foreigners.) Hot wine of various brands and vintages is served throughout. The most commonly drunk is a kind of shack or sherry negus—a yellow wine distilled from Indian corn. Being comparatively mild, it is served in small cups; ardent wine spirits of rice—samshu—in thimblefuls. Rose wine is one of several varieties, flavored with roses. (No wine is made from grapes, though they are plentiful in north China.)

When all are seated ready for the fray the host raises his cup—

"Let us drink!"

We reply, "Thanks! thanks!" then set to—with chopsticks, picking now from one dish, now from another, in piquant contrast of sweet, sour, and salt.

A SHERIFF'S PLEA

SAYS HE COULD NOT PREVENT LEAVENWORTH LYNCHING.

DID ALL HE COULD FOR NEGRO

WHO WAS BURNED AT STAKE IN BIG CITY.

THE WORK OF A MAD MOB

GHASTLY SCENE IS WITNESSED BY THOUSANDS.

Leavenworth, Kas., Jan. 16.—Officials responsible for the life of Fred Alexander, the negro burned at the stake in this city last evening, today began the preparation of their defense. The negro's guilt of the assault and murder last November of Pearl Forbes, which he denied with his last breath, was, they say, proved conclusively by his statements while in Lansing penitentiary. This evidence will be gathered and published in addition. Sheriff Everhardy said today that the report that Alexander assaulted a girl at Stillings, near here, is true, and that the young woman had appeared at the penitentiary yesterday before the wars for Leavenworth and positively identified the negro as her assilant.

Sheriff Everhardy said today:

"Those who condemn me should place themselves in my position. I did my duty so far as lay within my power, but I was overwhelmed by superior numbers. I told the warden I would land Alexander in the county jail, and I did. When I realized that the crowd was bent on getting my prisoner I stood up in the carriage and called to the driver to drive through to the county jail in spite of the crowd and over run any one who should git in the way. I locked the man up and did not give up the keyes, although several demands were made upon me. I deplore the fact that Alexander was burned. I did my full duty as sheriff of Leavenworth county.

"I did not request state militia and am glad the troops did not arrive. If they had there would have been several innocent lives lost."

DETAILS OF THE HORROR.

Leavenworth, Kas., Jan. 16.—Fred Alexander, the negro who attempted to assault Miss Eva Roth Saturday evening and who was accused of having assaulted and murdered Miss Pearl Forbes on the night of November 6, was late yesterday afternoon burned at the stake. The fire was kindled by John Forbes, father of the girl whose dead body was found two months ago. Several thousand people witnessed the burning, many of them being women and children, as well as business men, whose offices and stores were closed to witness what they believed to be a just retribution for the crime.

Alexander was brought to the city from the penitentiary at Lansing at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon and placed in the county jail. The citizens gathered in great numbers, and, finding peaceable entrance to the jail impossible, armed themselves with railroad irons. The jail doors were battered down and Alexander dragged to the scene of his crime, followed by hundreds of howling, frenzied men and boys.

PROTESTS HE IS INNOCENT.

Alexander went to the stake exhibiting strong self-possession and a rare command over his nerves. Before the match was applied John Forbes, the father of the murdered girl, stepped up to Alexander and asked: "Are you guilty of murdering my daughter?"

"I don't know what you have me here for," said the doomed man.

Forbes replied: "For killing my girl on this very spot."

"Mr. Forbes, if that's your name, you have the wrong man."

"Burn him! Burn him!" cried the mob.

"Gentlemen, you've got lots of time," said Alexander. "You are burning an innocent man. You took advantage of me. You gave me no show. Can I see my mother?" A man in the crowd called for the mother of the prisoner, but she was not present. He then asked: "Will you let me shake hands with all of my friends?"

"You have no friends in this crowd, you beast!" shouted one of the men in charge of the negro. "If you have anything to say, do so in a hurry." He was told to say his prayers, and for a few moments the vast crowd was hushed as if in a sanctuary.

HE LANDED IN JAIL.

The negro was taken from his cell at the state penitentiary at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, placed in a hack and brought to town. Fifty deputy marshals surrounded him, and Deputy Sheriffs Stancemyers and Tom Brown sat in the hack on either side of him.

There were fifty buggies and wagons in the procession which followed the hack. The trip to town was made quietly, and there was no attempt to create a disturbance on the road.

When the corner of Fourth and Olive streets was reached, the police who were in the hack following the one in which Alexander was concealed jumped out and chased several negroes. This created a diversion which attracted the attention of every one, and in the excitement the hack in which Alexander was concealed was frantically driven to the county jail. Just as the mob reached the doors he was locked in the first cell on the east side of the cellhouse. All the doors of the jail were locked.

JAIL DOORS BROKEN DOWN.

FORMER FT. WAYNE MAN DEAD

CHRISTIAN ORFF EXPIRES AT NEWPORT, ARK.

Christian Orff, in former years a leading dry goods merchant in Fort Wayne, died at 6 o'clock this morning at Newport, Ark., at the age of nearly 70 years. The news came in a telegram to Fort Wayne friends this morning.

Mr. Orff was a brother of the late John Orff, county commissioner-elect, and left Fort Wayne nearly twenty years ago. He was for a time engaged in the wholesale and retail dry goods business at No. 3 East Columbia street, the firm name being Orff & Noll Bros. After his removal to the west he engaged in the lumber business in Arkansas, later lived at Omaha, and still later at St. Louis, where he was cashier for the Chaperone Magazine company. His wife was a Miss Heller, daughter of a prominent family at Heller's Corners. There were three children—Frank, Addie and Mattie.

Mr. Orff was born in Germany and was the last of four brothers—John, Henry, Gottlieb and Christian—who were prominent Fort Wayne citizens for many years. Mr. Orff's funeral is to be held at St. Louis Friday.

KUHNS INTERESTS DURBIN

NEW GOVERNOR CONSIDERS THE CASE.

Believes the Noble County Convict Ought Not to Be Allowed to Hold Officers in Defiance.

Indianapolis, Jan. 16.—Governor Durbin had hardly settled into his executive chair before he was asked if he would make any attempt to return Marvin Kuhns to the Ohio prison.

"That is a question which I shall take into strong consideration," replied the chief executive. "If there is roaming about this state a man who is a desperado and such an outlaw as has been reported, it is a serious reflection on the state, and I shall see what can be done in the matter."

"You mean that you will notify the peace officers that Kuhns must be arrested?"

"I mean what I said," replied the governor, tartly. "I shall see what can be done in the matter. The idea of a single man defying the whole state is not a pleasant reflection on the peace officers. What plans I shall pursue I will decide on when I have ascertained how to proceed."

The governor added to this that he had taken no action, nor would he admit that any was contemplated. From other sources, however, comes a hint that within ten days Kuhns will either jump the state or he will have a chance to return to Ohio free of charge.

AN EXCITING RUNAWAY.

A horse belonging to Theodore Sutorius, a farmer residing a short distance west of the city, ran away on High street this afternoon and before the excited animal was stopped it had succeeded in completely wrecking the light buggy to which it was hitched. No one was injured in the runaway.

ALLEN COUNTY IT

ABSORBS ATTENTION OF THE STATE SENATE.

KELL CASE AGAIN COMES UP

IS SENT TO COMMITTEE ON ELECTIONS.

THE FLEMING-RYAN CONTEST

IS NOW BEING HEARD BY THE COMMITTEE.

[Special to The Sentinel.]

Indianapolis, Jan. 16.—In the senate this forenoon the special was a discussion whether Senator Kell of Allen county is affected by the Fleming-Ryan contest and should be sworn in as a new senator or regarded as a holdover. Senator Inman moved that Senator Wood's motion of a few days ago be referred to the committee on elections. Senator Inman spoke in favor of the motion and was supported by Senators Winfield and Ryan. Senator Ryan said:

"As one directly interested in this matter, I think the motion to commit the motion of Senator Wood to the elections committee fair, just and right and should prevail."

Senator Inman's motion thereupon was carried.

RYAN-FLEMING CONTEST.

This afternoon the senate elections committee took up the Ryan-Fleming contest from Fort Wayne. A report will be prepared as soon as possible. Senator Ryan is represented by Former Senator L. P. Newby, of Knightstown, and Former Supreme Justice Hackney appears for Mr. Fleming. There is no evidence to be heard, as the question involved is merely a constitutional point, which will be argued by the attorneys.

There are protests against changes in medical legislation filed in the senate. The house today passed Representative Bonham's bill providing for certain extra employes in the house. Representative Stutesman, late candidate for speaker, protested against passage of the bill.

REAL WORK BEGINS.

Although the sessions of both houses of the Indiana legislature were not prolonged yesterday, the members were kept pretty busy while they did work. Senate and house held morning and afternoon sessions. In the senate fifty-eight bills were introduced and in the house the number reached the neighborhood of seventy.

Among the more important measures brought up in the senate was the anti-lynching bill, a bill providing for capital punishment by hanging or electrocution, and an anti-cigarette bill or two. In the house all sorts of bills were introduced. A kidnaping bill, providing the death penalty or life imprisonment for this crime where it is done for ransom or hire, was introduced. The primary election bill was introduced by Representative Minturn, and the fee and salary bills were features of the day's work in the house. Two measures were passed in the house. One was a bill relating to bonds issued by county commissioners and the other was an act legalizing the official doings of a small Indiana town.

CHARTER BILLS.

Among the bills introduced in the senate yesterday was No. 47 by Senator Ryan, of Allen county, making city charters formerly applicable to cities of from 35,000 tot 49,000 population now apply to cities of between 45,000 and 49,000 population.

Bill No. 27, introduced by Senator Kell, of Allen county, authorizes school boards in cities of between 45,000 and 55,000 population to sell bonds to build schools.

In both branches of the legislature affairs moved smoothly yesterday. Speaker Artman announced his committees during the morning and some of them began work in the afternoon. Both houses held short afternoon sessions, but for the next week or more the house will probably have only half-day sessions. The first really spirited debate held in the house took place yesterday morning on account of a resolution introduced by Representative Neal to purchase fifty-two volumes of Horner's anotated statutes. The resolution was lost, as was one by Mr. Stutesman, who desired to buy Burns' statutes. Mr. Stutesman opposed Mr. Neal and thought it would be economy to purchase the other.

RULES COMMITTEE MEETS.

The committee on rules, regulations and ordinances met last night at the city clerk's office to discuss the new ordinance introduced at the last meeting, providing for the appointment of a city electrical inspector. The legislative committee of the Trades and Labor council, a number of employes from the Electric light works and a committee from the electrical workers' union were present. Nothing definite was done and the meeting adjourned to reconvene some time next week.

DISCOVERED A BLAZE.

At 5:30 this morning Officer Collins saw smoke issuing from the rear of Miller Bros.' junk shop on Superior street. A little investigation proved the presence of fire as well as smoke and an alarm was turned in. The chemical engine succeeded in extinguishing the fire without the assistance of the water engines. It was fortunate that the fire was discovered in its early stages otherwise a serious conflagration might have resulted. The origin of the fire is not known. The loss was nominal.

THE TELLER IS IN GAOL 4Da

SHORT MANY THOUSANDS IN HIS ACCOUNTS.

Teller Mason, of New York Bank, is Unable to Make His Books Balance—Long in Bank.

New York, Jan. 16.—J. Prevost Mason, third teller of the Continental National bank of this city, is in jail, charged with embezzlement. Mason was arrested late last night.

The specific charge is the stealing of $3,000 by means of false entries.

The peculations foot up $12,000 in all, according to the Fidelity and Casualty company, which was on Mason's bond for $10,000. Mason is forty-eight years old and lived with his wife and daughter, twenty-two years old, at 1551 Washington avenue, where he was arrested. He has practically been in charge since Sunday.

He has been with the bank twenty-seven years and received a salary of $1,800 a year.

Bank Examiner Charles A. Hanna went to the Continental bank Saturday to look over the books. Mason complained of not feeling well and said he guessed he would go home.

He did and a clerk was put in his place. It was not long before the clerk discovered something which led him to notify the bank examiner, and the shortage was discovered.

RED MIKE NOT WANTED.

London, Jan. 16.—Inquiries made in the proper quarters here show that the United States authorities have not asked for the extradition of either Michael Judson, alias "Red Mike," or James French, alias "French Jim," who are said to be implicated in the murder by means of "knock-out drops" at Philadelphia of Rev. Charles P. Riegel, a Roman Catholic priest, and one of whom at least, according to advices from Philadelphia, had shipped on a vessel thought to be the American line steamer Ikba, which sailed from Philadelphia January 4 for Liverpool. Nothing is officially known here of the case.

GAVE THEM A SURPRISE.

Councilman and Mrs. James J. Hayes, who have recently taken charge of the New Harmon hotel, were the recipients of an agreeable surprise perpetrated by friends last evening. About forty friends, including many of Mr. Hayes' old friends of the railroad service, gathered in the hotel parlors and spent the evening most pleasantly with cards and music. Refreshments were served at the close. The gathering was a pretty observance of the tenth anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Hayes' marriage.

NO SMALLPOX THERE.

Quarantine has been lifted from the only house in New Haven wherein there was a case of smallpox and the citizens of that little city are now free to go and come at will. The residents of New Haven are also congratulating themselves upon the fact that the dreaded disease has abated elsewhere in that part of the county and it is believed there is not a case of the malady within five miles of New Haven. The business interests of the town suffered greatly through the publicity given the one case of smallpox within the corporation limits. People outside did not go there to trade.

Willard Gabris, who has been the guest of Miss Eckert, of Berry street, has returned to Buffalo.

PRESSING A VOTE

ARMY REORGANIZATION BILL IS HURRIED.

WILL VOTE ON IT TOMORROW

THE PENSION BILL REPORTED

THE DAY'S PROCEEDINGS IN THE HOUSE.

Washington, Jan. 16.—In the senate today Mr. Carter asked that a final vote upon the army reorganization bill and all amendments then pending be taken at 4 o'clock tomorrow.

Mr. Allen said that for the time being he would object, although subsequently he might withdraw his objection. This objection, it is said, is only temporary, as an understanding has been reached that such an agreement will be made. Opposition senators say the vote will be taken at that time.

At the openin of today's session Mr. Gallinger reported the pension appropriation bill and it went to the calendar.

IN THE HOUSE.

Washington, Jan. 16.—Before proceeding with the river and harbor bill today Mr. Hull, of Iowa, chairman of the committee on military affairs, reported back the DeArmond resolution calling upon the war department for all information relative to the alleged action of General Chaffee in protesting against the looting in China, with the recommendation that it lie on the table. Accompanying the report Mr. Hull submitted the letter of the secretary of war, already published, explaining the difficulty in obtaining the required information and pointing out that it could not be procured until after the expiration of the present congress.

Mr. DeArmond, of Missouri, the author of the resolution, said that he had been moved to introduce it by a paragraph in the newspapers, which was very creditable to General Chaffee, in which it was recited that he had rebuked or protested against the conduct of an officer of a foreign government in regard to the looting in China.

The paragraph indicated that neither the American commander nor the American soldiers were responsible for the barbarity and dishonesty which had taken place in that unhappy country.

He had desired only to procure official confirmation of the reports, but the reasons given by the secretary of war for not pressing the resolution were entirely satisfactory to him.

The resolution was then laid upon the table and the house went into committee of the whole and resumed the consideration of the river and harbor bill.

WEST POINT INQUIRY.

West Point, N. Y., Jan. 16.—When the congressional committee met at the military academy today and before any witnesses were called, Congressman Wanger, of Pennsylvania, addressed the other committeemen. He referred to the published reports of the hissing incident at the close of the afternoon session yesterday. Mr. Wanger said that in at least two newspapers army officers were charged with taking part in the hissing. He desired, however, to express his firm belief that no expression of disapprobation was made by any army officer present at the time. He was pleased to hear that Colonel Hein, acting superintendent of the academy, had instituted a thorough inquiry regarding the matter. Mr. Wanger said since the committee had been treated with the utmost courtesy by all the officers, he would be sorry should any erroneous impression become prevalent throughout the country. General Dick and all the committeemen concurred with the views of the Pennsylvania representative and the matter was then dropped. Cadet Bierchie O. Mahaffy, of Texas, who was a classmate of former Cadet Booz, was called and sworn.

LOOKING FOR LOCATIONS.

W. F. Graeter, chairman of the committee on manufacturers of the Commercial club, has received communications from five different firms in various parts of the country who are desirous of securing new locations. The communications will be taken under consideration at once. Mr. Graeter states that a great favor would be conferred upon the committee by those owning land adjacent to railways if they would furnish the committee with a proper description of the land so that the required information could be given without inconvenience.

THE SINGING EVANGELIST.

Rev. Frank Miller, of Elgin, Ill., the "singing evangelist," will open a series of evangelistic services this evening at Bethany Presbyterian church in Nebraska. Rev. Miller is not only a fine preacher, but his vocal ability is excellent, and his meetings will undoubtedly be very successful. The meetings will be held each evening for a few weeks.

WILL ENLARGE LIBRARY.

The directors of the R. F. C. club held an important business meeting last evening and among other things decided to make extensive additions to their library. The number of books will be doubled and the very best works will be chosen.

DR. WOODS IS ACQUITTED

CASE NOT ESTABLISHED IN FRANCE'S COURT.

It Was Proved That Miller Child Did Not Have Membraneous Croup While He Was There.

Dr. I. N. Woods, of East Washington street, was arraigned in France's court this morning on two separate charges. The affidavits were filed by Dr. Drayer, city health officer, and charged Dr. Woods with having treated a case of membraneous croup, a contagious disease, and not having reported the same to the health office. The other charge was for failure to report the case to the sanitary policeman of the district. The case involved was that of the death of a child of Mrs. Sophie Miller, on Lavina street, last Sunday, which had been under Dr. Woods' treatment, and on Sunday Dr. Martz was called, pronounced the disease membraneous croup and the child died an hour or two later. Dr. Woods, it must be known, is not a practitioner under any of the old schools, but heals by Christian Science Treatment. Justice France heard the evidence and acquitted the defendant on both charges. Dr. Woods testified that he was called to see the child on Saturday morning and found it suffering from an ordinary cold, with no symptoms of croup, membraneous or otherwise. He administered his treatment by the usual Christian Science method and left and was not called again. The mother corroborated the doctor's statement and admitted that there were no signs of croup when he called. On Sunday morning the symptoms first appeared and she sent for Dr. Martz about 11 o'clock. It was after 2 when he called and the child was then beyond aid. There being no evidence at all against the defendant, an acquittal followed. Another affidavit was then filed against Dr. Woods by Constable Bagby, charging him with practicing medicine without a license. Justice France has that case still under advisement.

PRESIDENT MEETS CABINET

EXECUTIVE ABLE TO ATTEND SESSION.

No Business of Importance Came Up at the Meeting, Which Was Very Brief.

Washington, Jan. 16.—The cabinet meeting today, which was held in the private parlor of the white house, and which was the first one held since the president's illness, lasted about thirty minutes. No business question was brought before the meeting. It is likely there will not be another cabinet meeting, unless something extraordinary occurs, before the beginning of the week. The president is feeling very well today, but he still shows to a slight degree his illness and that he has not fully recovered his usual vigor.

C. T. Pidgeon, G. B. Saylor, R. E. Pidgeon, C. B. Turner and O. W. Riebel, the energetic quintet of salesmen for the Armstrong millinery house, leave this week upon their initial trips of the campaign for spring business.

TO TAKE HIS SEAT

SENATOR QUAY STARTS FOR WASHINGTON.

COMMISSION IS FORWARDED

WILL BE SWORN IN TOMORROW SOME TIME.

RETURNS TO HARRISBURG

TO HELP PUT PARTY'S STATE REFORM BILLS THROUGH.

Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 16.—Senator M. S. Quay left at 9:35 this morning for Washington in company with his daughter, Miss Cora, and Private Secretary Wright.

Edgar C. Gerwig, private secretary to Governor Stone, went to Washington this afternoon with the senator's commission. Mr. Quay expects to qualify tomorrow as a senator and then return to Harrisburg and direct the passage of the reform bills to which the Quay republicans are committed. The senate and house met jointly at noon and verified the vote for senator at yesterday's session, after which Lieutenant Governor Cobin formally declared Mr. Quay's election.

Both bodies will meet tomorrow and compute the vote at the last general election for auditor general and congressman at large.

A recess will be taken after this formality until Monday evening to allow the presiding officers to complete their committee assignments.

The standing committees will probably be announced at Monday evening's session. The reports of the house and senate republican state committees are expected to be submitted and confirmed at the same time.

Speaker Marshall received a telegram today from a party of Pittsburg manufacturers and business men requesting him to invite Governor Stone, Senators Quay and Penrose and the members of the legislature who voted for Mr. Quay to attend a banquet to be given in his honor in Pittsburg at a time to be fixed later.

THE DELAWARE TIE-UP.

Dover, Del., Jan. 16.—The general assembly met in joint session at noon today and voted for two United States senators—one for the full term beginning March 4, the other for the unexpired term of four years. The vote was practically the same as in separate session yesterday, the twenty-nine republicans again dividing on both propositions. The ballot for the long term was as follows:

Kenny (dem.), 23; Addicks (union rep.), 16; Dupont (rep.), 8; scattering, (rep.), 4.

For the short term: Saulbury (dem.), 22; Addicks (union rep.), 16; Richards (rep.), 9; scattering (rep. and dem.), 4. Absent, one regular republican.

Necessary to choice 26.

CAPITALISTS HERE

MINING MAGNATES MEET IN FORT WAYNE.

WATCH DR. HICK'S PROCESS

OF EXTRACTING PRECIOUS METALS FROM THE ORE.

MANY TESTS AT BASS WORKS

VISITORS ARE DELIGHTED AT THE SHOWING.

About twenty-five capitalists who are interested in the gold mines of the Dahlonega Consolidated and the Standard Mining companies are in Fort Wayne today watching with a great deal of interest a series of exhaustive laboratory tests of the Hicks process of extracting gold from ores.

The tests are being conducted at the laboratory of the Bass works under the personal direction of Dr. Hicks, the chemist of that institution, who is the inventor of the process which promises to far eclipse any previous method of securing the precious metal from among the baser metals where nature implanted it. Among the visitors are Hon. S. S. Shutt, of Spencerville; T. L. Bigelow, John Seibert, Louis Seibert, William Fisher and A. S. Hickey, of Columbus, Ohio; Frank Adams and Jacob Rosenthal, of Delaware, Ohio; Mark Hopkins, of St. Clair, Mich.; Mark Walser and B. F. Reimund, of Chicago; J. W. Adams, of Chattanooga; Capt. G. H. Breyman, Fred Welch, F. W. Newton, F. G. Thomson, J. M. Bloomer, Calvin Barker, W. E. Hetrick, Daniel Miller and B. C. Shaw, of Toledo.

Many of these gentlemen are men of abundant means, and as the Dahlonega company is financially interested in Dr. Hicks' process they were highly gratified with the showings made today. The larger machinery is not yet ready for operation, but the laboratory tests have proven so signally successfully that there is no doubt of the success of the process. In a test made from black sand taken from the vicinity of the Georgia mines, the process developed pure gold to the value of $100.72 for each ton of the sand. Upon the actual ores of the mines the yield is even greater. The Hicks process of extracting the precious metal is already attracting the attention of the mining world, and samples of ore from every part of the country are being shipped to this city for test. The visitors today are registered at the Randall, and they seem of the unanimous opinion that the process of the Fort Wayne inventor will revolutionize the mining business, for it secures a greater value in gold at much less expense than any of the other systems now in use. As soon as the larger plant is completed a more thorough test will be given it.

DEATH'S RECORD OF THE DAY

MRS. HENRY ETZOLD PASSES FROM EARTH.

Affliction Bears Heavily Upon a Widow's Home—The Deaths and Funeral Notices.

Mrs. Margaret Etzold, wife of Henry Etzold, of 110 Webster street, died at 7:45 o'clock this morning, after a brief illness from congestion of the lungs. Though in poor health for nearly a year, Mrs. Etzold's condition was not deemed serious until three days ago, when a severe cold developed into the disease which resulted in her death today.

Mrs. Etzold had reached the age of 68 years, 10 months and 11 days. She was born in Bavaria, but came to Fort Wayne more than forty years ago, and her husband was engaged for many years in the business of shoemaking. The surviving relatives include the husband and six children: Mrs. William Homburg, of St. Louis; Mrs. William Auman, of this city; Louis Etzold, in Kansas; Clem Etzold, at Huntington, and William and Fred Etzold, of this city. The deceased was a member of Emanuel's Lutheran church.

FRANCE.

Perry France, the little son of Mrs. Abram France, died this morning from diphtheria, at the age of 7 years. The hand of affliction has lain heavily upon this family during the past few months. Last summer the father died suddenly. A few weeks ago a child passed away. Monday a daughter succumbed to diphtheria and the burial had hardly occurred when her brother's death occurred today.

BENNIGIN.

Hugh Bennigin, a laborer employed at the Bash farm, about seven miles west of the city, died very suddenly this afternoon. Mr. Bennigin was taken sick while eating dinner about 12:30 and died at 2:30, the cause of death apparently being heart failure. Dr. Koontz, of Roanoke, and Dr. Sweringen, of this city, were summoned at once, but the stricken man was beyond all human aid, and expired shortly after their arrival.

Deceased was the son of Hugh Bennigin, of 201 East Lewis street, and was about fifty-four years of age. He is married and leaves a wife and six children. Three brothers, Julian, Joseph and Henry, and two sisters, Lena and Mary, survive him.

A SHERIFF'S PLEA.

battering ram, the door was forced from its hinges and the mob surged into the corridor by the narrow doorway. A huge iron bar was secured and the iron door of the cellroom attacked. This was finally bent so that it could be forced far enough back for men to climb over it. Several gained an entrance in this manner. In the meantime the crowd had pushed down the side gate of the stockade and in a moment there was a yelling pack in the jailyard.

The side door, which was made of heavy sheetiron, was the next object of attack. Several of the thoughtful ones had provided themselves with sledgehammers and cold chisels, and it was the work of only a few moments before the hinges were cut from inside. It was off its hinges in a moment. More men pushed inside, the iron bar was again called into play and the doors of the cellroom broken down.

Then the cry went up: "He is not here; he has escaped. Search the courthouse; there is a tunnel between and he has been taken out that way."

Some one with sharp eyes spied a shapeless mass crouched in one corner of the dark cell, and there was an exultant cry: "He is here; we've got him; bring the keys!"

MEN LAUGH HYSTERICALLY.

Several keys were found lying around the corridors and these were passed to the leaders. They would not work. Then again a sledge hammer was called into action and in five minutes the heavy lock had been broken off. A yell of terror issued from the cell. Inside the tension was so great that strong men filled the room with hysterical laughter. Outside the crowd was yelling in a manner that has perhaps never before been heard in the city of Leavenworth. Inside the cell those rushed who were nearest the door and a moment later issued forth dragging the negro by the coat collar. He had been struck over the head with a hammer, but was still conscious.

Men fought to get at the prisoner. These infuriated beings struck savagely at him and hit only his captors, who guarded him well.

"Don't hurt him!" they cried.

"We'll burn him!" was the response.

DRAGGED TO THE COURT HOUSE.

Outside the stockade the crowd surged. Alexander and his captors were surrounded by a solid wall of humanity. Across Third street and up the hill into the court house yard they dragged him. Then they stopped still.

"Confess before we harm you," they said.

"I am innocent. I am dying for what another man did. I see lots of my friends here. They know I did not do it. If I had been guilty I would have said so at the penitentiary and would have stayed there for life. The warden told me so. The policemen told me so. Would not I have told them if I was guilty?"

"You lie!" they cried, and one huge fellow, filled more with the lust of blood than the feelings of a man, struck him in the forehead with his fist three times. This seemed not to have the slightest effect on the negro. He was turning white. When he talked his voice was steady. He spoke with the resignation of a man who sees only before him death—slow, perhaps, but certain—and was prepared to meet it in its most awful form.

When he had finished talking a move was made for a large cottonwood tree in the northeast corner of the court house yard. He was backed up against it and a chain was wanted for. One could not be found, and while they waited Alexander was given another chance to confess.

"My God, men," he cried in his agony. "I have told you that I am innocent. I can't tell you any more. I didn't do it."

"He lies; burn him!" cried the mob.

"Take him where he committed the murder," suggested one.

The suggestion met with instant approval, and the crowd, carrying the negro, pushed on for Fourth street. There were many wagons standing about and into one of these they threw him. The wagon was started for the vicinity of Lawrence avenue and Spruce street, followed on the run by the crowd.

PROTESTS HIS INNOCENCE.

At 5:15 o'clock Alexander was brought to the scene of the murder of Pearl Forbes, at the corner of Lawrence avenue and Spruce street. The exact spot where the murdered girl was found was located by the leaders of the crowd and there a semicircle was formed. Alexander was brought up in a wagon with a dozen men. The wagon was stopped in front of the ravine, and surrounded by the crowd, the leader of the men who held Alexander called for silence. The roar ceased and Alexander was shoved forward for the crowd to gaze at. A howl went up, which was quickly hushed as the prisoner raised his shackled hands and began to speak. Twice he started and the crowd drowned his trembling voice.

"You are going to kill me, whatever I say," he said, "but you men are wrong. I want to tell you right now you've got the wrong man. I did not do that, and some day you men here will turn up against the man who did. I know it ain't any use to say so, for you're going to kill me, but I didn't do it."

BOUND TO THE STAKE.

The men standing behind him shoved him from the wagon and the roar from the crowd drowned every other sound. The negro was quickly driven down the embankment to the pile of wood, with his hands still shackled, and there bound to the stake. Long before the wagon containing the doomed man arrived at the place a crowd had gathered. Many carried rails and boards. Several seized railroad irons and carried them to the ravine. The spot chosen for the stake was the exact one on which Pearl Forbes' body was found on Lawrence avenue, near the Santa Fe track and 100 yards north of Spruce street.

The first thing done was to plant the railroad iron upright in the mud. This was made fast to cross irons, firmly bound to the upright iron with wire. Around the improvised stake wood and boards were piled. To this the man was dragged and chained in a standing position to the upright railroad iron. Chains and irons were wrapped about him, and with his hands still shackled, he was made fast to the post. Coal oil was then poured over him and the match touched to him.

QUESTIONED BY GIRL'S FATHER.

Before the match was applied John Forbes the father of the murdered girl, stepped up to Alexander and said:

"Are you guilty of murdering my daughter?"

"I don't know what you have me here for," said the doomed man. Forbes replied:

"For killing my girl on this very spot."

"Mr. Forbes, if that's your name, you have the wrong man."

"Burn him! Burn him!" cried the crowd.

"Gentlemen, you've got lots of time," said Alexander. "You're burning an innocent man. You took advantage of me. You gave me no show. Can I see my mother?"

A man in the crowd called for the mother but she was not in the crowd. He then said:

"Will you let me shake hands with all my friends?"

"You have no friends in this crowd, you beast," said one of the men in charge of the negro. "If you have anything to say do so in a hurry."

Another man then stepped up and said to Alexander.

"Make your peace with your God, nigger, for you will surely die."

Coal oil was then applied for the second time, and while it was being done Alexander called to friends in the crowd and told them good-by. He did not seem to realize that he was to be burned at the stake, and talked rationally until John Forbes, the father of the murdered girl, lighted the match. Again Alexander was asked to make a confession, but he replied that he had nothing to say.

CROWD YELLS AS NEGRO DIES.

As the flames leaped about him, Alexander turned ghastly pale and for the first time realized that his death was near. He clasped his hands together and began to swing to and fro, while the crowd yelled.

In less than five minutes he was hanging limp and lifeless by the chains that bound him. As soon as the crowd saw that life was extinct it began to slowly disperse. There were hundreds of the morbid, however, who stayed to the last.

Men kept piling on wood all the time until 7 o'clock, when the flames were allowed to die down. From 6 to 8 o'clock there was a continuous stream of people going to the scene of the burning. These were persons who had been unable to get away from their work in the afternoon, but were determined not to miss seeing the awful spectacle.

When the fire had died down sufficiently to allow the crowd to approach what remained of Alexander there was a wild scramble to obtain relics, bits of charred flesh, pieces of chain, scraps of wood—everything that could possibly serve as a souvenir was seized on with morbid eagerness.

SOCIETY WOMEN VIEW BURNING.

The procession that followed the mob from the jail to the place of execution was joined by the best people of the city. Society women returning from a swell reception in the fashionable part of the city joined the mob in their carriages with liveried drivers. They approached closely to the scene of the burning, standing up in their carriages and watching the sufferings of the doomed man. Every class of citizens was represented in the mob. The business man stood shoulder to shoulder with the workman and there were boys, women and girls in the melee. The mob was incited by the great number of insults to women by negroes which have occurred recently.

The whole community is shocked at the deed. It is the sole topic of conversation on the streets and in the homes. There is considerable fear that further lynchings will take place on account of the feeling against the negroes and the resistance some of them have shown to mob law.

NO WORLD OF PITY HEARD.

About 6 o'clock the coroner and two policemen went and got the remains, taking them to an undertaker's establishment. The coroner's jury has been named, but the inquest will not be held for a few days.

The remains were viewed by thousands and up to the time they were taken away the carriages and vehicles were continually passing by the spot. No expressions of regret or pity are heard from any source.

CALLS SHERIFF A COWARD.

Topeka, Kan., Jan. 16.—Governor W. E. Stanley is very indignant at the result of the lynching at Leavenworth. He says it will result in the death penalty in Kansas, as it should do. The governor condemns Sheriff Everhardy of Leavenworth in unmeasured terms. He says the sheriff should be made to make suitable retribution if such a thing would be possible.

"The sheriff of Leavenworth is either a despicable scoundrel or a despicable coward," said the governor. "There was no reason in the world that the negro should not have been protected to the last with the whole militia power of the state, and the sheriff knew it all the time.

"I ordered the militia of Lawrence and Topeka to be ready, and they would have been sent to the scene of the trouble the minute the sheriff would say he needed them. Instead of that, however, the sheriff was very sure that he could guard the man. Upon receiving repeated assurances from Sheriff Everhardy that he could and would protect the prisoner to the last, I very reluctantly countermanded the order for the troops to go to Leavenworth."

CONDEMN THE ACT.

Topeka, Kas., Jan. 16.—A joint resolution was passed by the legislature today deploring and condemning the Leavenworth lynching. The resolution favors a most rigid investigation of all the acts and circumstances attending the lynching and demands that the perpetrators be punished to the full extent of the law.

ABOUT THE COURT HOUSE.

The county commissioners deny the statement made in a morning paper that an agreement had been reached between them and the constructors of the Southwestern railroad for the reconstruction of the bridge at Reidmiller's. The bridge there is an iron one and not a wooden one, as stated, and if it is not strong enough to carry the Southwestern company's cars, their contract with the commissioners plainly states that they must strengthen it to the satisfaction of the superintendent of bridges without any assistance from the county. The matter has never been taken up by the commissioners and has never been officially brought to their notice. They will, however, visit the bridge in the course of a day or two to make their regular inspection and will investigate the surroundings. The building of the road will develop a lot of new territory out west and in course of time a new bridge will be required at that point. If the railroad company will agree to build a bridge like the Wells street bridge, or sufficient to meet requirements for a number of years, the commissioners will gladly entertain a proposition to build the abutments now and save the expense of an entire new structure in the future, but up to this time nothing of that character is before them.

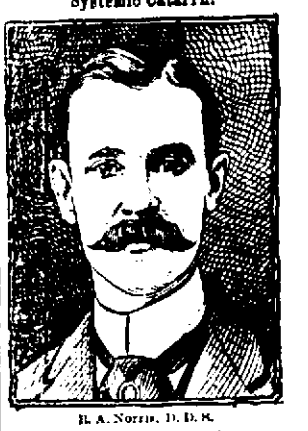
A CHICAGO DENTIST
Relates How He Found a Cure for Systemic Catarrh.



R. A. Norris, D. D. S.

R. A. Norris, Doctor of Dental Surgery, 126 State street, Chicago, Ill., writes to The Peruna Medicine Company as follows:

"I desire to express for the benefit of the public my experience with the famous catarrh remedy, Peruna. I was afflicted with catarrh of the head and throat for twelve years. I had tried many remedies without avail. I applied to several doctors, but they were not able to cure me. I learned of the remedy, Peruna, through your pamphlets and took it for four months. It entirely cured me, and as I took the remedy three years ago, I consider the cure permanent."

Hon. Clement M. Hammond is one of the best known newspaper men in New York City. Writing to The Peruna Medicine Co., he says:

"For about six years I have had trouble every fall and winter with my voice. At times it has extended to my bronchial tubes and lungs. I think all this trouble came from whooping cough, which I had when I was about twelve years old, and which left me with catarrh. Since I have taken Peruna, my voice has been clearer than in over two years, all of which I am willing to testify to." Mr. Hammond's address is "The Arlington," 64 Montague street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Address Dr. Hartman, Columbus, O., for a free catarrh book.

AT PATTERSON'S

Tomorrow you can buy Stein Block suits, worth $17, for $9.80. Suit worth $20 for $12.

IT IS ON

We have begun a sale that is a sale. A sale to sell stuff. All men's, boys' and children's suits, top coats and reefers will be discounted 20 per cent. with the exception of plain blue and black suits, which will be discounted 10 per cent.

We do not do this because we are overloaded. Our stock is very small but if we have what you want it will be right in style. We have sold the big end of our stock at a profit; now you can have what is left very cheap. While we were East we closed out the entire stock of Stein Block and Garson Meyer suits and overcoats. This word "entire" sounds large but in this case it is not as the two houses had only about $6,000.00 worth of heavy weights left in stock. We took them all. We have marked them at about the regular wholesale price and put them in the sale at 20 per cent discount. Think what it means—New nobby clothing at 20 per cent. below wholesale prices. Come and see what we have for you.

SALE IS NOW IN PROGRESS.

The Oldest and Best.

S. S. S. is a combination of roots and herbs of great curative powers, and when taken into the circulation searches out and removes all manner of poisons from the blood, without the least shock or harm to the system. On the contrary, the general health begins to improve from the first dose, for S. S. S. is not only a blood purifier, but an excellent tonic, and strengthens and builds up the constitution while purging the blood of impurities. S. S. S. cures all diseases of a blood poison origin, Cancer, Scrofula, Rheumatism, Chronic Sores and Ulcers, Eczema, Psoriasis, Salt Rheum, Herpes and similar troubles, and is an infallible cure and the only antidote for that most horrible disease, Contagious Blood Poison.

A record of nearly fifty years of successful cures is a record to be proud of. S. S. S. is more popular today than ever. It numbers its friends by the thousands. Our medical correspondence is larger than ever in the history of the medicine. Many write to thank us for the great good S. S. S. has done them, while others are seeking advice about their cases. All letters receive prompt and careful attention. Our physicians have made a life-long study of Blood and Skin Diseases, and better understand such cases than the ordinary practitioner who makes a specialty of no one disease.

SSS We are doing great good to suffering humanity through our consulting department, and invite you to write us if you have any blood or skin trouble. We make no charge whatever for this service.

FRIENDS OF WAR-TIME DAYS.

Gen. Reub Williams, in his Warsaw Daily Times, says:

"Our old war time friend and square-dealing gentleman, George Reiter, of Fort Wayne, well-known to the people of Warsaw and for many years a manufacturer of cigars in the "Summit City," was in town on Monday, and as usual gave us a call. During the stirring days of recruiting in the years of the war, we saw much of Mr. Reiter, who in every possible way aided the union cause, and who had a number of warm personal friends in the regiment the editor of this paper commanded, and kept in touch with all its marches, camps, skirmishes and battles, so that even at this late day he is well posted in all the movements it made during the four years' struggle. We never meet him but the war days are renewed in the minds of both and we have kept up our acquaintance ever since; consequently we are always pleased to see George Reiter."

FRAGRANT GRAIN FIELDS.

Food That Takes One Back to Childhood.

"The delicious odor that comes when you pour hot milk or cream over Grape-Nuts, takes one back to childhood and the wide, golden harvest fields when the wind blew in your face the scent of ripened grain, and made you, oh so hungry!

"Of all the appetizing foods, Grape-Nuts food is the chief. I was led to change my diet and take up Grape-Nuts, from the fact that I had a very serious, long-standing case of constipation, which originated from coffee drinking. Constant headaches, backaches, and a stomach that felt like lead, was the condition; while the mind was filled with misgivings of all sorts, and I verily believe I would have gone insane if it had not been for the temporary relief from various cures for constipation, but there seems to be no permanent relief except in good food like Grape-Nuts.

"This food is the same to a weak stomach as kind words and a gentle touch to an aching heart. All my doubts and fear and distress of mind disappeared as soon as I found a food that I could digest and which relieved my difficulties. Life became brighter and better, my home a "sweet home." I have proved conclusively that the food is really predigested and that it is a great nerve and energy builder. Of course I can hardly express my gratitude for the relief I have had."—Emma Kauffman, Bismark, Mo.

OUTLINED A PROGRAM.

The Elks' committee has roughly outlined a program for the state meeting to be held in this city in June, and it is expected that the opening day, June 11, will be devoted to the reception of members. Business sessions will occur on the day following, with a theatrical performance in the evening. On the afternoon of the 13th there will be a parade, and in the evening a monster social session. Other features to be introduced are a picnic, band contests and a base ball game, and there will be prizes given for the lodge having the largest delegation in attendance, for the fattest man, the strongest man and the handsomest man. Sub-committees will be appointed within a short time to carry out the details of the program.

The constitution may not follow the flag, but it seems to be trekking suddenly close to the heels of Charles Fitz Weather Neely.

Matthew S. Quay has given that famous plum tree such a jolt as has landed the largest, juiciest and most luscious of its fruit plump into his lands.

The good citizens of Leavenworth have started in to demonstrate that the only difference between the nineteenth century and the twentieth is to be found in the figures on the calendar.

So long as Matthew S. Quay remains a part of the republican party and the state of Pennsylvania continues to be reliable for two or three hundred thousand republican majority, the hope of the republican reformers to eliminate Quay will be nothing more than a dream. Redemption of the entire government of the states from the political party that misrules it is the only promising course.

The atmosphere of Colorado appears to be prolific of enough strenuousness even for Vice President-elect Roosevelt. The first day out on his hunting trip he slew a mountain lion that was about to banquet on one of his party. He has since had a narrow escape from death at the paws of a grizzly and he has not yet fairly got into the woods. All this without reference to certain incidents of his political tour in Colorado during the campaign last fall.

NEW HIGH SCHOOL BUILDING.

Reasons might be indefinitely multiplied why a new high school building should be erected in this city. There are a few, however, which are forceful and sufficient. The present high school building is much too small, it is wretchedly located, it is badly arranged, it is unsanitary, it is not at all adapted to pursuit of modern educational methods, and it is an eyesore to a large, wealthy, artistic and growing city like Fort Wayne. A new building, equal to present and future needs, that shall be all that the present building is not ought to be provided with no unnecessary delay.

The school board has resolved upon such a building. The purpose to build it will call forth general approval in the community. But one question really is open and that concerns the course by which the funds are to be provided. The school levy may be raised or the school board may issue bonds. Undoubtedly an issue of bonds would prove to be the more economical and in the long run the more equitable and satisfactory. A decided increase of the school levy would be essential to provide the money and would impose the whole burden of additional taxation at once. Another pertinent objection to this plan is the delay that would ensue in getting the building started. An issue of bonds would enable the board to begin the work the coming season, whereas to raise the money by levy would compel the board to defer beginning until there would be a sufficient fund accumulated by taxation to get the building under way. Unless the levy were raised to a point likely to provoke the protest of taxpayers several years would elapse before the building were completed.

But, whether money is raised by levy or a sale of bonds, it ought to be raised as soon as the plan adopted can accomplish the purpose. The schools are suffering for want of the building.

IN THE JUSTICES' COURTS

Sherman Whitman was yesterday fined $1 and costs by Justice France for assaulting George McDowell at Sheldon.

George P. Miller was yesterday bound over to the circuit court by Justice Tancey, in the sum of $200. He is charged with assault with intent to kill. Christian Seidler, whom Miller found in his house the other night when he returned home, was fined $1 and costs for assaulting Miller and another affidavit charging assault and battery has been filed by Mrs. Miller. Altogether the Miller family has had a very busy time of it for the past two or three days. Excitement in the neighborhood has been working nights and if business keeps up they will have to put in a larger boiler.

Jesse Hartman has filed an affidavit against Harry Rable charging malicious trespass. The offense was committed last October.

Henry Schroeder has filed a peculiar damage suit against T. J. Peters, the sewer contractor, in Bullerman's court. Schroeder alleges that he was in the habit of pasturing his horse on certain enclosed lots in White's addition adjoining the Nickel Plate road and that the defendant in constructing the sewer was obliged to remove the fence around part of said lots; he then dug a deep trench (the sewer) which was wide enough and deep enough so that a horse could not cross it. Afterwards though defendant filled up said sewer in trench, making it safe for a horse to cross, but failed to again put up the fence. On the 15th of September plaintiff's horse wandered through the breach in the fence across the filled up sewer and on to the right-of-way of the Nickel Plate road, where it was run down by a train of cars and injured so that it had to be killed. For this he demands damages from Peters in the sum of $100.

The case of the state ex rel Vinnie Smith vs. Mose Moore for illegitimate parentage was dismissed in Bullerman's court today. The parties live in Scipio and a settlement was made for a money consideration.

FREE TRADE IS BESTOWED

ON JOLO ARCHIPELAGO WITH PHILIPPINE PORTS.

The Philippine Commission Acts on a Number of Important Matters of Civil Government.

Manila, Jan. 16.—The Philippine commission has passed acts giving, in domestic products, the Jolo archipelago free trade with all Philippine ports and providing for the issuance of licenses to masters and mates of sea-going vessels.

Further hearing on the executional bill has been postponed until Monday in order to give the commissioners opportunity to consider privately the proposed amendments to the measure.

The United States cable ship Burnside has finished the work of laying the cable connecting the Island of Negros with northern Mindanao. Zamboganga and Jolo will soon be connected.

H. Phelps Whitmarsh, recently appointed governor of the province of Benguet, reports that several towns in the province have held elections and organized local governments.

SAILS FOR MANILA.

New York, Jan. 16.—The United States transport Wright, which has been some time fitting out for Manila, to be used as a dispatch boat and store ship, sailed for the orient today. The Wright was originally a fruiter and was presented to the government by some patriotic Boston women for a hospital ship at the outbreak of the Spanish war, when she was named "The Aid." After the war she was used for a time by General Wood at Cuba for a dispatch boat. The Wright has been laid up for a long time in Erie basin.

INTENSE SUFFERING

FROM DYSPEPSIA AND STOMACH TROUBLE

Instantly Relieved and Permanently Cured by Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

A NEW DISCOVERY, BUT NOT A PATENT MEDICINE.

Dr. Redwell relates an interesting account of what he considers a remarkable case of acute stomach trouble and chronic dyspepsia by the use of the new discovery, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

He says: "The patient was a man who had suffered, to my knowledge, for years with dyspepsia. Everything he ate seemed to sour and create gases in the stomach. He had pains like rheumatism in the back, shoulder blades and limbs, fullness and distress after eating, poor appetite and loss of flesh; the heart became effected, causing palpitation and sleeplessness at night.

"I gave him powerful nerve tonics and blood remedies, but to no purpose. As an experiment I finally bought a 50 cent package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at a drug store and gave them to him. Almost immediate relief was given and after he had used four boxes he was to all appearances fully cured.

"There was no more acidity or sour, watery risings, no bloating after meals, the appetite was vigorous and he had gained between 10 and 12 pounds in weight of solid healthy flesh.

"Although Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are advertised and sold in drug stores, yet I consider them a most valuable addition to any physician's line of remedies, as they are perfectly harmless and can be given to children or invalids or in any condition of the stomach, with perfect safety, being harmless and containing nothing but fruit and vegetable essences, pure pepsin and Golden Seal.

"Without any question they are the safest, most effective cure for indigestion, biliousness, constipation and all derangements of the stomach, however slight or severe."

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are made by the F. A. Stuart Co., of Marshall, Mich., and are sold by druggists everywhere at 50 cents per package.

REMODELED POLICE STATION

IMPROVEMENT IS AGAIN BEING TALKED OF.

Headquarters May Be Moved Upstairs and Court Room Down —Doings of Police.

The project of removing the police headquarters from the basement of the city hall to the floor above is being revived. The recent damp weather has made the lower rooms almost untenantable. Noxious gases come from the drains, the earth is damp and gaseous and in a general way the rooms are unhealthy. Within the past two weeks nearly every man constantly employed in the station has been off duty on account of sickness. Langard, the clerk, has just returned to work, Smith, the day clerk, was sick a week, Madden has been ailing for a month or more, Lieutenant Lapp is confined to his house now, and even Romy is said to be suffering from pinkeye, according to the diagnosis of Dr. Dodge. The room above now used as a court room could be easily converted into convenient station quarters and police court could be held in the room below now used as headquarters. Police court is in session less than an average of an hour a day while the police department is in session twenty-four hours each day, so the change could be made without embarrassment. All that is need is to have a door cut through the east wall of the court room and a stairway placed on the outside. Mayor Scherer said to The Sentinel this morning that the health of the department demands that something should be done soon and that he would bring the matter to the attention of the boards soon.

Officer Trammel has made his report for 1900 and finds that he has been a very busy man. During the year he officiated at the funeral of 311 dogs of various colors, ages, sexes, condition and political belief; he also buried or disposed of otherwise 343 cats, 40 chickens, 5 colts, 1 calf, 5 rabbits, mostly Belgians; 1 goat, 711 rats, 50 horses and 2 cows. The balance of his time he put in as license officer and prodded up the animals so that on January 1st there was not a delinquent on the city books.

Oscar Eaton was at police court this morning charged with vagrancy which charge Ossie mildly denied. If he of the aesthetic name is not a typical hobo the true type must be something frightful. He was positively the dirtiest mortal that has been seen in court this century. The mayor adjusted a clothes pin to his nose and sent him over for sixteen days.

A gentleman named Frank Lewis, of Wapakoneta, O., was in the city yesterday in search of a Russian Jewish family that had become lost. The immigrants being unable to understand English had evidently miscarried somewhere and were unable to set themselves right. It takes a pretty good linguist and a very sober one too, to say Wapakoneta anyway, without sending in a riot call. Mr. Lewis found no trace of the missing family.

A rug manufacturer named Kiesling complained to the mayor that some one is in the habit of claiming packages at the several railway freight offices which are intended for him. There are several rug factories in the city and it is probably one of these that receives his goods, by mistake. He has bundles of old carpet shipped to him from out of town, the carpets to be made over into rugs. The first intimation he usually has of the shipment is when some customer who shipped comes in and reads him the riot act in two or three different styles, and accuses him of stealing the stuff which he has never seen and never heard of. The mayor advised him to him to make his explanation to the freight agents, who would cheerfully see to it that no mistakes occurred in the future.

Affidavits have been filed against a driver for the Banner laundry and George C. Richards for driving through a funeral procession. The cases will be tried at police court tomorrow morning.

Louis Kruse is charged with driving an oil wagon without a proper license. He will have his hearing in the morning.

L. F. Curdes has been granted a permit to erect a frame dwelling house on West Jefferson street to cost $1,500.

In the case of Annie Edwards, appealed to the circuit court from the mayor's court, the defendant was fined $25 for drunkenness. The statute provides that for the first offense the fine is limited to $5, and for subsequent offenses when a higher fine is assessed the docket must show that the greater fine was imposed because of a repetition of a previous offense. The docket in this case does not show this. The law has been in existence for a long time, but this is the first time that an appeal was taken on the grounds taken. Mrs. Edwards has already served part of her imprisonment, staying the docket for the balance, pending the appeal.

COURT NEWS.

The superior court docket will be called tomorrow morning and all cases not answered to will be dismissed.

Two divorces were granted, Lulu Miller from George P. Miller, and H. G. Studer from Lillian Studer.

The damage case of Meyer Wolfson against the Wabash Railway company was dismissed.

In the Hayes divorce case the defendant was ruled to answer.

In the case of the Great Western Manufacturing company against Marion Black the examination of the defendant was ordered for January 22.

The case of the state vs. Anna Edwards has been appealed from the mayor's court to the circuit court.

The damage suits of Washington McHenry and Adam Popp against the Consolidated Street Railway company on the docket for years, have been dismissed.

THE RAILWAY SUBSIDY.

To the Editor of The Sentinel.—The voting citizens of Wayne township, Allen county, Ind., are asked to vote an appropriation of $100,000, agreeable to the conditions following:

"That $50,000 shall be applied in assisting said company, its successors or assigns, in constructing a railroad in Wayne township, which road is to run from Fort Wayne, Allen county, Ind., to Butler, DeKalb county, Ind., and $50,000 of said amount shall be used in constructing and enlarging shops, of building and repairing cars and locomotives and enlarging yards; said buildings are to be constructed of brick and covered with iron and slate roofing, and also for the maintenance of a junction terminal point. Said yards and shops shall be constructed within two miles of the city of Fort Wayne, Allen county, Ind. The amount last above named shall not be used for any other purpose than building and enlarging shops and yards, as above mentioned."

The foregoing is the effective part of the petition filed with the commissioners of Allen county, by the promoters of the Fort Wayne and Butler Railroad company, wherein five voters of Wayne township, including all that part of Fort Wayne situated in Wayne township (not all of Fort Wayne, since a considerable part of this city is in Adams township, the township most benefited) are asked to vote an appropriation of $100,000, to be paid the Fort Wayne and Butler Railroad company, its successors and assigns.

There is much being said and promised by the perhaps well-meaning promoters, yet not all of this petition, which, by the way, constitutes the contract between voter and the proposed Fort Wayne and Butler Railroad company, there is not one word connecting the Wabash Railroad company; hence the Wabash Railroad company could not even be forced to accept any appropriation the voters of Wayne township might wish to donate (much less comply with any condition or promise made by the promoters, because the said company is not a party to this contract).

The petition recites that $50,000 of the total sum sought to be appropriated "shall be applied in assisting said company, its successors or assigns, in constructing a railroad in Wayne township. Now, eliminating the question as to the Wabash Railroad company being a party to the contract there will be no road constructed in Wayne township, as is evidenced by reading between the lines of the petition. Then what becomes of the $50,000? The Fort Wayne and Butler Railroad company, or its assigns, can comply with the conditions of the contract, as embodied in the petition, by investing $500 to $1,000 in the construction work in Wayne township, and thus satisfy its obligation to the voter, who can charge the residue to profit and loss as has been done heretofore, based each time by carelessly drawn contracts, lacking in the elements of binding force.

Even if the Wabash Railroad company should become the successor of the Fort Wayne and Butler Railroad company, it would have no use of the $50,000 (for the purpose of construction, though it might be induced to accept said sum as a gratuity), since it has its own line already constructed through Wayne township, and Adams township as well.

In this petition which forms the contract there is not one word or the slightest assurance that the Wabash Railroad company will ever be the successor of the Fort Wayne and Butler Railroad company. All assertions involving the Wabash Railroad company in this matter is by talk and has no binding force whatever.

If the gentleman promoting the election for an appropriation will secure the co-operation of the Wabash Railroad company to the extent of effectually binding said company to locate and maintain its division terminal in the city of Fort Wayne, the taxpaying citizens of Wayne township will without a doubt be pleased to exhibit the spirit of patriotism which, though seemingly dormant, is ever waiting for opportunity to encourage legitimate enterprise. Until such effectual contract can be entered into, it could certainly be of no advantage to Fort Wayne, and it would in the highest degree be unwise to vote the appropriation asked for.

Respectfully,
JOHN DREIBELBISS.

JUSTICE MOVING SWIFTLY

PATERSON TRIALS NEARING CONCLUSION.

State Has Rested and Defense May Close Case Today—The Bosschieter Murder Case.

Paterson, N. J., Jan. 16.—Interested crowds today filled the approaches to and the room in which the court of oyer and terminer is sitting for the trial of three of the alleged murderers of Jennie Bosschieter, the mill girl. The state having rested its case last night the day's proceedings began with the presentation by counsel of the case for the defense. Of the three accused men Death most showed the effects of the strain through which they are passing, and dejection and extreme nervousness were depicted in his countenance and movements. McAlister, on the other hand, was comparatively self-possessed, but Campbell was evidently troubled and anxious. There is a possibility of the defense closing its case today and the trial being concluded tomorrow with the summing up and judge's charge.

When Judge Dixon opened court counsel for the accused asked that Scul Thorpe, the hack driver, be recalled so that he might be confronted with the record of his conviction of a crime of which he had previously been found guilty.

Judge Dixon denied the request on the ground that the point sought to be made against Scul Thorpe was immaterial.

Michael Dynn then delivered his address, opening the case for the defense. He made mention of the brief into which the family of Jennie Bosschieter had been plunged by the tragedy and added that the case was also sad on account of the youth of the prisoners and because it had brought such disgrace upon their families.

Counsel promised to prove that the death of Jennie Bosschieter was not caused in the commission of a criminal assault, and also that the charge of willful murder could not stand against the defendants.

Mr. Dunne proceeded with a narrative of the events preceding the death of Jennie Bosschieter, the purpose of it being to show that the meeting of the four men, McAlister, Campbell, Death and Kerr, was not prearranged and that the girl made the first advances that opened the way for the meeting at Saul's saloon.

KEPT FIRE FROM SPREADING.

An immense pile of sawdust around the site of the old ice house which burned down near the St. Joe river bridge Tuesday took fire late last night and spread so rapidly as to endanger other property in the vicinity. A number of employes of the Centlivre brewery, together with citizens of Spy Run avenue, put in a lively night keeping the blaze from communicating to other property.

GOSPEL MEETINGS.

There will be gospel services at the Simpson M. E. church this evening, conducted by the pastor, Rev. T. J. Johnson. Prayer meetings will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, as follows:

2:30—At the home of Mr. Merriman, corner of Creighton avenue and Smith street; leader, Mrs. Sadie Siegler.

2:30—At the home of Mr. Baker, 345 Clay street; leader, Mrs. Florence Zook.

LOCAL NEWS.

Miss Enoch Cox will entertain a small party of friends at progressive euchre on Friday afternoon.

Miss Mae Quinn and Miss Mona Powers have returned from Hicksville, O., where they have been visiting friends.

Mrs. Tracey Wilbert and Miss Elizabeth Hoosier and daughter, Marie are visiting relatives and friends in Portland.

Miss Merle Norris has accepted a position as bookkeeper and stenographer for F. M. Smaltz. Her many friends wish her much success.

TO BUILD SCHOOL THIS YEAR

MODERN BUILDING FOR ST. MARY'S PARISH.

Will Cost About $22,000, of Which Nearly $17,00 Has Been Subscribed.

A handsome brick school building, equipped with every modern convenience, will shortly replace the old school house of St. Mary's Catholic church at the corner of Lafayette and Jefferson streets, and it is expected that the new structure will be completed and ready for occupation by the middle of September.

The matter was decided upon at the regular service on Sunday morning and the pastor, Very Rev. John H. Oechtering, appointed a committee on finance. The school question has been hanging fire for the past two years, and during that time the sum of $17,000 was subscribed. Father Oechtering was unwilling to proceed with the work until the full amount had been subscribed, and as it is expected that no difficulty will be encountered in raising the remaining $5,000, he has decided to undertake the construction of the new building this year. The finance committee will call upon such members of the congregation as have not yet given in their subscriptions and it is expected that when the committee has finished its work the subscriptions will be such as to insure the building of the new school this spring.

The new school will be 129x53 feet, with basement and two stories, and will face Lafayette street. There will be six class rooms and accommodations for about 350 boys. The basement will contain a large room, to be used for social purposes, and also room for the heating apparatus. The second floor will be devoted to class rooms, and the entire third story will be used as a hall for entertainments, meetings of societies, etc. The work of tearing down the present structure will commence in April and the work of construction on the new building will be pushed as rapidly as possible, that the school may be completed in time for the opening of the fall term in September.

The present school building was constructed about forty-five years ago, during the pastorate of Rev. Father Wenz. It is inadequate for the present needs and it has even long been considered unsafe. There are five instructors at the present time, but the number will be increased when the new school is completed. The old school building is a landmark of Fort Wayne, and many of the older members of St. Mary's congregation attended the sessions there in their youth.

Preliminary sketches and specifications for the new structure were prepared by Architects Kendrick & Bradley and as soon as the finance committee has completed its subscription list, they will be submitted to Rt. Rev. Bishop Alerding for approval.

S. W. Stitt circle, No. 16, Ladies of the G. A. R., will meet at the home of Mrs. Welch, 125 Walton avenue, Friday afternoon, Jan. 18.

The Ladies' Aid club of the A. M. E. church will give an entertainment at the church on Thursday, Jan. 24.

Mrs. Isaac Weil and son, Elmer, have returned from the south.

THE MARKETS.

Chicago, Jan. 16.—May wheat opened today ¼@¾c lower at 76⅞ to 76⅝c, under the influence of lower cables. The depression of outside markets further influenced the market and May during the first hour dropped to 76⅜@76⅛c. Local receipts were 63 cars, none of contract grade. Minneapolis and Duluth reported 322 cars against 291 last week and 231 a year ago.

Corn was dull and featureless. May opened ⅛c to a shade lower, at 38⅛@38¼c to 38⅜c, and sold to 38c in sympathy with the wheat weakness. Receipts were 421 cars, two of contract grade.

Oats were dull and easier with wheat. May opened a shade lower to unchanged at 24¾@24⅞c and sold to 24¾c. Receipts were 219 cars.

Provisions opened weak on heavy hog receipts and lower prices at the yards and declined later on small demand. May pork opened 2½c lower at $14.25 and declined to $13.95; May lard 5@7½c down at $7.52½@7.55, dropping to $7.45 and May ribs 5@7½c depressed at $7.17½@7.20, selling to $7.12½.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, Jan. 16.—Federal steel was forced down to 50 on running sales of 8,000 shares at the opening contrasted with 51⅛ last night. The stock was supported and rallied feverishly and there was a demand from the clients in the other steel stocks, steel and wire and tin plate rising about a point each.

Manhattan, Burlington and St. Louis and San Francisco rose from 1 to 1¼ and Erie was in large demand at a fractional advance. The general list showed opening changes mixed.

Speculation became quite uneven under the diverse movement in special stocks. Manhattan managed to rise 2 points and help the tractions. Burlington's progress to 141 stirred the grangers, and there was some recovery in the Pacifics. Liquidation was very general in the steel stocks, a rally to 51 and subsequent dip to near 49 in Federal Steel unsettling the group. At 11 o'clock the railways were improving all around while the specialties were receding.

St. Paul became conspicuous and rose vigorously to 155½, almost 6 points above yesterday's close. The adroit manipulation of this stock caused uneasiness among the shorts in other properties and the demand to cover advanced many stocks from 1½ to 3 points.

Delaware and Hudson, Sugar, Illinois Central, Northern Pacific, Burlington and St. Louis and San Francisco second preferred were absorbed heavily. The steel stocks made intermittent rallies, but did not hold well. Federal Steel met large offerings on the rallies. St. Paul came back to below 153 before midday and the general tone became reactionary in a duller market. The bond market was quiet but firm.

THE MONEY MARKET.

New York, Jan. 16.—Money on call steady at 3 per cent; prime mercantile paper, 4@5 per cent; sterling exchange steady with actual business in bankers' bills at $4.87@4.87¼ for demand and at $4.83½@4.83¾ for 60 days; posted rates, $4.84@4.88; commercial bills, $4.82½@4.83; silver certificates, 63½@65½c; bar silver, 63¾c; Mexican dollars, 45½c.

GOVERNMENT BONDS.

RICHMOND WANTS NILL.

Manager Byram, of the Richmond base ball team, has written Manager Cleary, of the Shamrocks, relative to signing George Nill, the fast second baseman of the Shamrocks, for the Richmonds for this season. Young Nill is a base ball player of great promise and was one of the best men with the Shamrocks last season. He played with the Anderson team of the Indiana league early last summer, and later in the season played second for the Fort Wayne league team, filling the position most creditably. The Richmond team is one of the fastest in the state and they have already asked for a date with the Shamrocks in the spring.

BASE BALL GOSSIP.

Frank DeHass Robison is out in a statement saying that the American association is a sure go, is under the protection of the National league and has plenty of capital behind it. It will include both Louisville and Indianapolis and will interfere with the present plans of the Inter State, but will not affect them materially.

M. J. Tiek, owner of the Youngstown franchise, has gone to Little Rock to accept a lucrative position as a magnate in the Southern league. Youngstown is permanently out of the Inter-State and will join fortunes with the Western Pennsylvania league.

Jack Glasscock's Sioux City team has been transferred to Pueblo and Minneapolis has taken Sioux City's place in the Western league.

The Inquirer's Dayton base ball correspondent is industrious if not enterprising. Every once in awhile he gets himself busy and telegraphs his paper a lot of stuff that was from a week to ten days' growth of whiskers on it. He has just discovered that "the Inter State is still alive."

The names of Otto Krueger, who played short for Fort Wayne last season, and Jack Harper, the boy twirler, who was also a member of the local team, appear on the list of members of the St. Louis National league club for the season of 1901.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat: "Frank Figgemeier, the stalwart twirler, is wintering in St. Louis and intends returning to New Castle next season. He had good success there the past campaign and is in receipt of an increased contract to sign for 1901."—Frank will find a note left with his name in New Castle's window when he comes back.

George Tebeau is in Kansas City, superintending the new park on Fholey Park, and said to a Times reporter: "If the American league does Indianapolis it will mean that the Western league will get that city, as well as Louisville. The American league has a right hold on Louisville, but if it drops Indianapolis we can get both cities. What cities will be dropped in the present circuit is not in question that can not now be guessed. But it will be the two cities that show the smallest gate receipts next year. That much is sure.

Out of the smoke of the struggle comes something new and large. The Eastern league, which is allowed by the Nationals to exist so long as it sought and kept out of their territory, has thoroughly aroused over the determination of the American to steal its players, is going to expand. It is going to take a large, deep hand on Washington and Baltimore, and is going to retake Buffalo. Its circuit will be Providence, Baltimore, Washington, Buffalo, Toronto, Montreal, Syracuse and one other town—maybe Rochester or New Haven.

CARD OF THANKS.

In behalf of Fort Wayne lodge No. 136, Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, I wish in this manner to express sincere thanks for the kindly assistance and expressions of sympathy given us at the funeral of our late brother, F. A BATTLE WITH BURGLARS.

South Lyons, Mich., Jan. 16.—Six men broke into Carpenter & Jacobus' bank here last night, and after blowing off the outside door of the safe, blew open the steel money chest inside. The explosions wakened C. D. Hamilton, who lived near the bank, and he began an investigation. He was found by the burglars, who opened fire on him.

Hamilton, after shooting at the thieves several times, went for assistance and the burglars ran to the railroad track, where they found a handcar, on which they escaped. About $300 was stolen from the bank and as much more scattered about the office by the explosion.

SENTENCE POSTPONED.

New York, Jan. 16.—Cornelius L. Alvord, jr., who pleaded guilty last week to stealing $620,000 from the First National bank, was to have been sentenced by Judge Thomas in the United States circuit court today, but on the application of his counsel Judge Thomas postponed the sentence until tomorrow. Alvord's counsel had some matters pertaining to the case to fix up before Alvord goes away.

No Quiet Days for Us.

We will sell suits and overcoats to people that had no idea of buying. We sold you goods last fall for less money than you could buy elsewhere. That's why we sold you. Now what is left will be discounted 20 per cent. While we were East we closed out the entire stock of Stein Bloch, and Garson, Meyers' heavy weight suits and overcoats for men and boys.

The cheapest suit of clothes made by Stein Bloch costs $11 at wholesale. Now if we put Stein Bloch suits in the sale at $9.60 they will be apt to attract your attention, for you will know that they are at least $1.40 below the regular wholesale price. All heavy-weight underwear and men's and boys' pants will be discounted 10 per cent. Hats and caps discounted 10 per cent.

A Sad Inheritance.

A little girl out in Oregon when seven years old was stricken down with rheumatism, and the local doctor said it was hereditary, as the other members of the family had it. She suffered from it for five years, until a friend who had been cured of it by Ath-lo-pho-ros recommended this remedy to her. The doctors had tried five years to cure her, but Ath-lo-pho-ros did it with only two bottles. These inherited cases are the hardest to cure but Ath-lo-pho-ros will do it, no matter what the cause or the conditions.

FREIGHT STOREAGE

THE RAILWAYS ADOPT A PROTECTIVE POLICY.

FIVE DAYS FREE FROM RENT

AFTERWARDS A CHARGE IS MADE ON ALL GOODS.

NEWS OF THE SHOP AND RAIL

GRIP SPREADS AND CRIPPLES THE SERVICE.

On and after February 1 the shipper or consignee of goods will be compelled to pay storage for all freight which remains in the freight houses in this city a longer period than five days, not counting Sunday or legal holidays. This storage business will be placed in the hands of the local agents of the Western Weighing and Inspection Bureau, who have instructions to vigorously enforce the rule. The railway companies are driven to this step by certain shippers who abuse the privilege of storing goods at the freight house. For instance, at one of the freight houses in the city there are about 200 packages belonging to a Fort Wayne manufacturer that have remained there since last October. At another warehouse a certain heavy shipper has a big stock of his goods on hand all the time and makes the warehouse a storage and distributing quarters to the great annoyance and inconvenience of the agent and the men who are employed there. The establishing of a storage system is for the express purpose of correcting this evil. The companies do not go into it as a money-making business. In fact, they would be pleased if the occasion for storage charges would never arise. One of the agents said that it would effect only a very small per cent. of the shippers. All baggage depots have a similar rule, with a much shorter time limit.

REMEMBERED MR. STEGER.

A fourteen-piece silver tea service, suitably engraved, is included in the many wedding presents received today by Mr. and Mrs. Louis Steger, notice of whose marriage appears elsewhere in The Sentinel. This costly testimonial was presented by the men employed in the Pittsburg machine shop, where Mr. Steger is the clerk and timekeeper. It is indicative of the esteem entertained for the young man by the shopmen and no doubt is duly appreciated by him.

THE GRIP INCREASES.

The increased length of the sick lists on the road and in the shops indicate a corresponding spread of the grip among the employes of the Pennsylvania company. New victims are Engineers Tony Kelker, W. Dexter and C. F. Sweeny; Firemen G. W. Ervin, E. A. Jernod, W. E. Eaton, T. F. Gaskins and C. B. Whitman, and Shopmen S. G. Miller, T. J. Walda, E. F. Zeigler, R. G. Fenker, John Fay Szink, R. W. Shaw, F. P. Vananda and W. J. Redmon.

PANHANDLE CUTS RATES.

As a result of the construction of the Cincinnati, Richmond and Muncie railroad, the new line between Cincinnati and Chicago, the Panhandle has reduced freight rates between Richmond and Cincinnati. The Cincinnati, Richmond and Muncie cuts the distance from seventy-four to sixty-nine miles, and the Panhandle has given a seventy-mile rate. The Panhandle has also cut the rate on coal 30 cents a ton into Richmond from the Indiana fields.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Engineer M. B. Lacey, of the Pittsburg, is off duty, looking after private affairs.

Switch engine 501, just out of the Wabash repair shops, was sent to Tilton to go into service.

L. E. Thayer left for California last night in the interest of the Packard Piano and Organ company.

Foreman Joseph Slater, of the Bass blacksmith shop, is in Indianapolis upon a business mission today.

A. A. Serva and William Crighton, of the electric offices, are on duty again after an experience with the grip.

Rhinesmith & Simonson's shops resumed operations this morning. They were closed yesterday for repairs to the engine.

Yard Conductor William Hayes, of the Pittsburg, is sick and Charles Malcom has temporary charge of the engine and crew.

Machinist Joseph Hessler and Blacksmith Charles Freese have taken positions in the Kerr Murray works.

W. E. Fetters, E. J. Seaton, C. A. Ames, C. Geffert and C. A. Ames are now employed as brakemen on the Pittsburg road.

Brakemen C. Bitner, L. P. Stone and H. E. Baum, who had been on the sick list, reported for work on the Nickel Plate yesterday.

J. Osterman, who was off duty a week on account of the illness of his wife, reported for work at the Nickel Plate round house yesterday.

Purchasing Agent Frank Brown, of the Pennsylvania, left this morning for Kentucky and West Virginia to purchase ties for the company.

Passenger Engineer Peter Carter and Firemen J. E. Crowley and J. F. Magers, who were sick, resumed work on the Pittsburg this morning.

The consolidation of the Colorado Midland road with the Colorado Southern leaves W. S. Bailey, general passenger agent of the former, out of position.

Nickel Plate Brakemen A. H. Staley and D. C. Potts are off duty, the former on account of sickness in his family and the latter for the purpose of rest.

A 2,000-light dynamo, transformers, meters, etc., left the electric works today for Crawley, La. A small machine was also shipped to Muskeegon, Mich.

J. Lachreiter and Aug. VonDissen, the former a hostler and the latter a brakeman, are sick and off duty. Patrolman L. E. Bigelow is also sick. All are Pittsburg employes.

An Indianapolis paper says it is intimated that the legislature will be asked to pass a law making it a criminal offense for scalpers to deal in forged or mutilated tickets.

C. Hackney, general superintendent of the Fox Pressed Steel company, who died last week, prior to taking that position, was superintendent of motive power of the Union Pacific.

Engineer Ed Wolf and Fireman George W. Conklin, of the Nickel Plate, are taking a few days rest. L. B. Studer, a fireman on the same road, is off duty on account of the sickness of his wife.

Fred Armack, machinist, took a position in the Bass shops this morning. "Chip," as his associates call Mr. Armack, was for a number of years an engineer in the city fire department. He was formerly employed at the Bass works.

The Wabash will put on a through passenger train running from Kansas City to New York for the Pan-American exposition, which opens May 1st, and part of the fifty new coaches contracted for last week will be used in equipping these trains.

It is stated that negotiations are pending for the purchase direct of the C., P. & V. road by the Pennsylvania company. The Panhandle has a through express train running by way of this river route at present, and the Pennsylvania company is said to hold a majority of the stock.

The Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen will have charge of the C. J. McNally funeral tomorrow and will attend in a body. The Trainmen will assemble at the hall, 140 Calhoun street, for that purpose at 8:30 o'clock tomorrow morning. The funeral occurs at 9 o'clock from the Cathedral.

The Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen find the demand for invitations to their annual ball much greater than they expected. They were compelled to order more of them printed. The men having charge of the affair are quite jubilant over the situation.

Indianapolis Journal: "An official of the Pennsylvania lines said yesterday that the earnings of the Panhandle lines west for 100 would exceed $21,000,000, and that notwithstanding the extraordinary expenses the profits of the year would be close to $1,340,000.

W. C. Frantz, trainmaster; C. W. Brant, chief dispatcher, and F. E. Ramsdall, superintendent of car service, are recent appointments announced by J. F. Angell, the new superintendent of the Toledo and Ohio Central road. The above officers will have headquarters at Bucyrus.

Five cars of train No. 76, loaded with grain, westbound on the Pittsburg road, left the rails at Van Wert at an early hour this morning. The balance of the train was soon made up and continued on its journey and the accident caused but little delay to traffic. The wreck crew was called out to replace the cars on the rails.

Brakemen H. Weber and H. F. Henschen, who were appointed a committee from the local lodge of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen to accompany the remains of their late brother, F. B. Burk, to Dry Run, Pa., returned home last night. Mrs. Burk and her children, the bereaved family, will return home early next week.

A. G. Blair, Canadian minister of railways and canals, will propose to the Dominion parliament the appointment of a railway commission to decide freight rates. He says there is coal enough in British Columbia to supply the world for a million years; no obstacles will be put in the way of any roads that want to enter the Crow's Nest pass.

Conductor A. Kniffen and Brakemen James Blackburn, S. O. Middleton and C. W. Welsh are on duty. Mr. Kniffen has sickness in his family. Mr. Middleton is sick and the others have private business to look after. Brakeman W. H. Hallock resumed work yesterday after a short lay off. All are Pennsylvania employes.

The grip is now paying its "respects" to the Wabash shopmen. Foreman C. L. Hepp, of the blacksmith shop, and Foreman James Murray, of the boiler shop, have the malady. Mr. Murray remained on duty, but Mr. Hepp was compelled to go home at 9 o'clock. David Murray has charge of the shop in the absence of Mr. Hepp. William Beasman and William Heine, boilermakers, are sick also.

WILL IGNORE DEMANDS.

San Domingo, Republic of Santo Domingo, Jan. 16.—(Via Haytien cable).—The chamber of commerce has adopted a resolution to ignore the notice to the San Domingo Improvement company of New York declaring null and void the government's disposition and collection of the customs duties, and demanding that the directors of the company withdraw the notice which has caused irritation. The minister of foreign affairs will leave here tomorrow on a mission to the government of the United States. All is quiet here.

WARSHIP READY FOR SEA.

San Francisco, Jan. 16.—The United States cruiser Boston, which for months has been undergoing repairs at the Mare Island navy yard, will soon be ready for sea. The gunboat Alert, which has also been laid up at Mare Island, will also go into commission within a few weeks and sail for the Philippines to be used in the inter-island service. The cruiser Marblehead is in dry dock and will not be ready for service again for a long time. The revenue cutter Shetis is at the navy yard, where considerable work is to be done on her.

WRECKED ON A BRIDGE.

Barstow, Cal., Jan. 16.—The Santa Fe overland train, east-bound, from San Francisco for Chicago, ran over a burning bridge at Siberia, seventy miles east of here, all the cars being derailed. The engine alone remained on the track. The passenger coaches maintained their upright position and no one was injured.

JUDGMENT POSTPONED.

NOT HEREDITARY

In the main, consumption is not hereditary; it is infectious. People are too afraid of heredity; better not think of the subject at all. Infection occurs continually.

Low vital force is hereditary; which gives consumption its chance. And infection plants it.

Between the two, the crop is a big one: about one-sixth of the human race, so far as is known.

We suppose it needn't be 5 per cent. if people would take fair care and Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil.

We'll send you a little to try, if you like.

A REVELATION

OPPOSE THE WABASH SUBSIDY

PENNSYLVANIA OFFICIALS ARE AGAINST IT.

Mr. McKim and Mr. Crawford Will Address Meeting of Business Men This Afternoon.

The request that Wayne township vote a subsidy of $100,000 to aid in the construction of the Fort Wayne and Butler railroad as a connecting link for the Wabash system, is meeting with vigorous opposition from the officials of the Pennsylvania company, who take the position that it would be unjust to tax their company for the purpose of aiding a rival corporation.

The first public statement of the Pennsylvania company in the matter will be made this afternoon to a committee of the Commercial club at a special meeting which has been called for 4 o'clock, and invitations were mailed this morning requesting a number of representative business men to attend and hear Supt. J. B. McKim and F. D. Crawford, superintendent of motive power of the northwestern system of the Pennsylvania company.

It will be recalled that on Thursday evening the Commercial club passed a resolution endorsing the subsidy, and Mr. McKim and Mr. Crawford will present the Pennsylvania's side of the matter today. It is said the latter company will make a vigorous fight against the subsidy, and it is also intimated that a large number of Pennsylvania employes will be later found electioneering against the appropriation.

The HOLLYWOOD,
Asbury Park, N. J., Feb. 3, 1900.

I read your advertisement in regard to Wine of Cardui in the Baltimore American, and it so favorably impressed me that on my visit to Baltimore during the holidays, I purchased a bottle of it for my adopted daughter, who was suffering with female troubles. She had been under the doctor's treatment for some time, and when her periods would come on, her sufferings were something terrible. I induced her to try it and the first dose brought on her menses. She took it regularly according to the directions, and was greatly relieved. To use her own words "It has saved my life".

J. WESLEY CROSS.

Mr. Cross' daughter realized what Wine of Cardui had done for her when she said "It has saved my life". Menstrual irregularities never continue long without involving falling of the womb, leucorrhœa, or some other dangerous malady which endangers life and happiness.

WINE OF CARDUI

is an emmenagogue which lays the foundation for a woman's health by regulating the menstrual flow. Its beneficial result is felt almost immediately as the sharp, shooting, dragging and bearing-down pains disappear directly. Then the organs are strengthened and a final cure is the result. Do you not want such a cure as that? Nine out of every ten are struggling through life with some burden brought about by female troubles. You may be one of them. Throw the burden off! Many women besides Miss Cross have taken Wine of Cardui for relief and are well and happy to-day just as she is. Try Wine of Cardui. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles. Do not accept a substitute.

A CHINESE DINNER TABLE.

The table is ready, laid with an imposing show, a regulation number of regulation dishes, marshaled in regulation order, says a writer in Blackwood's Magazine, quaint porcelain stands filled with slices of oranges, pears or cold goose; towels of purple quince jelly squares, grapes or shredded chicken breast; saucers of shrimps salted in their skins, and, never forgotten, the famous eggs, preserved for years in lime, and served, sliced, in beds of brown jelly (much prized for their acrid and rather ammoniacal flavor, but not usually appreciated by foreigners). Hot wine of various brands and vintages is served throughout. The most commonly [illegible] a kind of shack or sherry negus, a yellow [illegible] distilled from millet corn. Being comparatively mild, it is served in small cups; ardent wine spirits of rice—samshu—in thimblefuls. Rose wine is one of several varieties, flavored with roses. (No wine is made from grapes, though they are plentiful in north China.)

"Let us drink!"

We reply, "Thanks! thanks!" Then set to with chopsticks, picking now from one dish, now from another, in piquant contrast of sweet, sour, and salt.

LET ME SAY I have used Ely's Cream Balm for catarrh and can thoroughly recommend it for what it claims. Very truly, (Rev.) H. W. Hathaway, Elizabeth, N. J.

I TRIED Ely's Cream Balm, and to all appearances am cured of catarrh. The terrible headaches from which I long suffered are gone.—W. J. Hitchcock, late Major U. S. Vol. and A. A. Gen., Buffalo, N. Y.

The Balm does not irritate or cause sneezing. Sold by druggists at 50 cents, or mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y.

Our sale had started them our way even if it is warm.

E. B. Robinson, proprietor of the Wayne hotel barber shop, has added to that establishment a large formaldehyde sterilizer of sufficient capacity to accommodate towels, shaving mugs, hair brushes, combs, clippers, scissors, hair dusters, razors, bath brushes and towels. All these implements are thus treated and rendered absolutely antiseptic, so that there is no possible chance of infection from their use. The new plan will doubtless prove extremely popular with the public.
